Minuteman Murder:

The Death and Life of Aida Hernandez Aaron Bobrow-Strain, 2019-04-16 The award winning biography of an undocumented teen mother's struggle with US immigration A rich novelistic and illuminating work of literature Michelle Goldberg The New York Times Book Review One of Esquire's 50 Best Biographies of All Time In 1987 Aida Hernandez was born in Agua Prieta Mexico At the time the nearby US border was little more than a worn down fence Eight years later Aida's mother took her and her siblings to live in Douglas Arizona By then the border had become one of the most heavily policed sites in America Undocumented Aida fought to make her way She learned English watched Friends and after having a baby at sixteen dreamed of teaching dance and moving with her son to New York City Instead Aida was separated from her son and deported to a Mexican city marked by violence The daughter of a rebel hero from the mountains of Chihuahua Aida embarked on a harrowing journey to reunite with her son But returning to the United States was just the beginning of her quest Taking us into detention centers immigration courts and the inner lives of Aida and other daring characters The Death and Life of Aida Hernandez reveals the human consequences of militarizing what was once a more forgiving border Author Aaron Bobrow Strain brings us into the heart of a violently unequal America showing that the people caught in today's immigrations wars are flawed complex humans who deserve justice and empathy Winner of the 2020 Pacific Northwest Book Award Winner of the 2020 Washington State Book Award Named a 2019 Southwest Book of the Year The minuteman murder Jane Langton, 1980 Mystery Fanfare Michael L. Cook, 1983 This work is a composite index of the complete runs of all mystery and detective fan magazines that have been published through 1981 Added to it are indexes of many magazines of related nature This includes magazines that are primarily oriented to boys book collecting the paperbacks and the pulp magazine hero characters since these all have a place in the mystery and detective genre The Minuteman Murder Jane Langton, 1974 Minutemen Jim Gilchrist, Jerome R. Corsi, 2006 This book is a first hand account from the frontlines and what it says will shock you Jim Gilchrist teams up with Jerome Corsi the co author of Unfit for Command the book that derailed John Kerry's presidential campaign to describe in vivid detail how the nation's southern border has disintegrated into a Wild West of human trafficking drug smuggling and violent gangs Readers of this disturbing and timely book will learn how Mexico encourages the mass emigration of millions of impoverished peasants and why the Mexican government will stop at nothing to keep the border open The Catholic Church uses its power and influence to subvert immigration laws and why Church leaders are speaking out in favor of amnesty American taxpayers are forced to pay the staggering economic and cultural price tag of illegal immigration and why our government wants to keep the true costs hidden from the public Like their Revolutionary War predecessors who defended America against a hostile foreign power today's Minutemen have risen up to answer their nation's call against another invasion Minutemen is their story as well as an urgent call to arms to all of their countrymen The Mystery Fancier William F. Deeck, 2008-08-01 A bibliography of various mystery novels published between November 1976 and Fall 1992 What About Murder? (1981-1991) Jon L. Breen, 1993-11 This supplement covers over 350 titles in the original categories plus more than 200 entries in a new category mystery anthologies with reference value The Minuteman Murder Jane Langton, 1980 The peaceful town of Concord Massachusetts is steeped in a glorious past celebrating as it did each year the pageant of Paul Revere's fateful ride and the birth of American liberty But this year the Shot Heard Round the World would be followed by more sinister gunfire Suddenly Concord was swept up in a mystery of the past and the menace of the future plunged into a race against death with a killer in the saddle and a lovely young woman caught under the pounding hooves of terror First He Killed the Minuteman CYNTHIA. HERBERT-BRUSCHI ADAMS, 2025-01-30 First He Killed the Minuteman by Cynthia Herbert Bruschi Adams a gripping description of a series of crimes including murders which swept through towns in Connecticut in 2020 Shockingly the perpetrator is a gifted college student who attacks people who are trying to help him or are old friends His weapon of choice is a samurai sword This accounting details how the murderer follows this slashing and assault with decisions taking him further toward doom via more deceit kidnapping and murder But the authorities are on his trail With a beautiful young woman held at gun point he leads police through several States Readers will be held captive anticipating the outcome of this chase This true story is told with vivid descriptions and well developed backgrounds on those involved First He Killed the Minuteman is a must read for fans of True Crime and those interested in criminal justice and mental health Librarians in Fiction Grant Burns, 1998-03-01 The depictions of librarians in over 374 novels short stories and plays in English are the focus of this fully annotated reference work Librarians no less than other professionals want to know how they are depicted in fiction The stereotypical or fictional librarian the one with the bun comfortable shoes and dour demeanor may be fading but fiction teaches a lesson about public perception Actually story librarians are often described as adaptable knowledgeable shrewd tactful tender and intelligent traits that the authors and by extension the readers look for in their librarians All entries include complete bibliographic data followed by a lengthy annotation that discusses how the librarian fits into the story and gives insight to how he or she is depicted Title and author indexes are provided for further utility The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher's Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher's Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942
