women fifty years apart strive to make their mark on a world set against them For most New Yorkers Grand Central Terminal is a crown jewel a masterpiece of design But for Clara Darden and Virginia Clay it represents something quite different For Clara the terminal is the stepping stone to her future It is 1928 and Clara is teaching at the lauded Grand Central School of Art Though not even the prestige of the school can override the public s disdain for a woman artist fiery Clara is single minded in her quest to achieve every creative success even while juggling the affections of two very different men But she and her bohemian friends have no idea that they ll soon be blindsided by the looming Great Depression and that even poverty and hunger will do little to prepare Clara for the greater tragedy yet to come By 1974 the terminal has declined almost as sharply as Virginia Clay s life Dilapidated and dangerous Grand Central is at the center of a fierce lawsuit Is the once grand building a landmark to be preserved or a cancer to be demolished For Virginia it is simply her last resort Recently divorced she has just accepted a job in the information booth in order to support herself and her college age daughter Ruby But when Virginia stumbles upon an abandoned art school within the terminal and discovers a striking watercolor her eyes are opened to the elegance beneath the decay She embarks on a quest to find the artist of the unsigned masterpiece an impassioned chase that draws Virginia not only into the battle to save Grand Central but deep into the mystery of Clara Darden the famed 1920s illustrator who disappeared from history in 1931
