Ministry With The Sick:

Ministry with the Sick Church Publishing Incorporated, Morehouse Church Resources, 2005-03-01 This pocket sized edition of a pastoral staple will include official new rites of the Episcopal Church. Included are prayers, litanies and other material that address medical conditions that were either unknown or not publicly talked about when the Prayer Book was revised in the 1970s. Some of these include the termination of life support, difficult treatment choices, loss of memory and survivors of abuse and violence.

Ministry to the Sick Episcopal Church, 1988 Ministry to the Sick Church of England, 1980 And You Visited Me Charles W. Gusmer, 1984 Extreme unction and last rites are no longer a part of the Church's ministry to the sick and dying according to Father Charles Gusmer. Today communal celebration frames sacramental experience. In the rites for the sick and dying this experience is the paschal mystery working in the life of the seriously ill Christian in the community. Priests, deacons and students of liturgy will find this work a sourcebook for understanding the development of the rites and a guide in the ritual praxis. Suggestions for ministerial implementation are made in the context of information now available from liturgical scholarship and modern scientific research on sickness and death.

The Ministry to the Sick Church of North India, 1980 Ministry to the Sick Leo Malania, 1977 The Ministry to the Sick, 1923* Caring for the Sick and Elderly Marie Roccapirore, 2003 This book highlights the various ways pastoral care ministers and parish volunteers can reach out to the sick and elderly. There are a wealth of ideas here for extending spiritual, sacramental and charitable support to parishioners who are homebound in nursing homes or in hospitals. For many years Sr. Marie Roccapirore has been involved with a parish program called Project H E A L Homebound. Encouraged through Assistance in Love. The details of this program are provided in this book along with forms and other reproducible information that will be useful in developing this type of program in your own parish. Also included is an extensive listing of resources that are invaluable for ministry with the sick and elderly. The creative ideas offered will motivate more involvement among children as well as adults and bring positive results among the sick and elderly recipients who eagerly look forward to the compassionate and loving care of others. Personal examples and anecdotes help illustrate the ways that even the simplest gestures of care and concern can make a world of difference in the lives of the infirm.

Enriching Our Worship 2 Episcopal Church, Church Publishing Incorporated, 2000 Prepared by the Standing Commission on Liturgy and Music and adopted by the 73rd General Convention this new set of materials was adapted from sources in scripture, a variety of contemporary prayer books throughout the Anglican Communion, traditional materials from Orthodox and medieval western sources and hymnody of various American cultures. Newly written texts and some texts from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer which have been revised are also included.
