Minnesota Rural Artists Association,1966 Poststructuralism and Critical Theory's Second Generation Alan D. Schrift,2014-09-11 Poststructuralism and Critical Theory s Second Generation analyses the major themes and developments in a period that brought continental philosophy to the forefront of scholarship in a variety of humanities and social science disciplines and that set the agenda for philosophical thought on the continent and elsewhere from the 1960s to the present Focusing on the years 1960 1984 the volume examines the major figures associated with poststructuralism and the second generation of critical theory the two dominant movements that emerged in the 1960s Althusser Foucault Deleuze Derrida Lyotard Irigaray and Habermas Influential thinkers such as Serres Bourdieu and Rorty who are not easily placed in standard histories of the period are also covered Beyond this thematic essays engage with issues as diverse as the Nietzschean legacy the linguistic turn in continental thinking the phenomenological inheritance of Gadamer and Ricoeur the influence of psychoanalysis the emergence of feminist thought and a philosophy of sexual difference the renewal of the critical theory tradition and the importation of continental philosophy into literary theory The ... Mental Measurements Yearbook Oscar Krisen Buros,1941 Biopolitical Animal Carlo Salzani,Felice Cimatti,2024-11-30 The two issues around which this collection revolves are that it is impossible to address biopolitics without taking the animal question into account and that the animal question inherently concerns the politics of life beyond species barriers Although biopolitical theories are necessarily structured around animal metaphors they predominantly refer to human corporeality On the other hand the animal question is typically treated as an ethical issue that is a question of how human beings the dominant species ought to learn how to live peaceably with and respect other forms of life This collection of essays by leading scholars in the fields of biopolitics and animal studies problematises reconceptualises and redefines these categories in order to realise the full potential of the biopolitical framework of analysis in the context of animal studies and praxis
