Misery Hill:

Nez Perce Summer, 1877 Jerome A. Greene, 2022-09 Nez Perce Summer 1877 tells the story of a people's epic struggle to survive spiritually, culturally, and physically in the face of unrelenting military force. Written by one of the foremost experts in frontier military history, Jerome A. Greene, and reviewed by members of the Nez Perce tribe, this definitive treatment of the Nez Perce War is the first to incorporate research from all known accounts of Nez Perce and U.S. military participants. Enhanced by sixteen detailed maps and forty-nine historic photographs, Greene's gripping narrative takes readers on a three and one-half month, 1700-mile journey across the wilds of Idaho, Wyoming, and Montana territories. All of the skirmishes and battles of the war receive detailed treatment, which benefits from Greene's astute analysis of the strategies and decision making on both sides. Between 100 and 150 of the more than 800 Nez Perce men, women, and children who began the trek were killed during the war. Almost as many died in the months following the surrender, after they were exiled to malaria-ridden northeastern Oklahoma. Army deaths numbered 113. The casualties on both sides were an extraordinary price for a war that nobody wanted but whose history has since fascinated generations of Americans. Misery Hill David Wheatley, 2000 David Wheatley's first collection, Thirst, was widely praised for its restless adventures in time and place. Misery Hill concentrates on what look like more familiar locales. The Dublin street of its title is a derelict site which, in the author's hands, becomes powerfully evocative of the secret and forgotten life of the city. Alternating between Dublin and County Wicklow, Misery Hill interrogates the present in the light of the past, exploring time and memory in poems deeply rooted in the psychic geography of their settings. These range from explorations of family history, politics, and love to the title poem's long purgatorial journey through a city uneasily reminiscent of contemporary Dublin. Spooky California S. E. Schlosser, 2019-06-26 Pull up a chair or gather round the campfire and get ready for thirty creepy tales of ghostly hauntings, eerie happenings, and other strange occurrences in California. Set in the Golden State's big cities, oceanside towns, rugged mountains, and sparsely populated deserts, the stories in this entertaining and compelling collection will have readers looking over their shoulders again and again. California's folklore is kept alive in these expert retellings by master storyteller S. E. Schlosser, and in artist Paul Hoffman's evocative illustrations. Readers will meet the Queen of Death Valley, cheer on the ghost who haunts his claim-jumping murderer, look out for a blood-hungry rolling head, learn about the sea monster of Monterey Bay Canyon, and hear otherworldly voices from the Pacific Ocean, or simply feel an icy wind on the back of their necks on a warm California evening. Whether read around the campfire on a dark and stormy night or from the backseat of the family van on the way to grandma's, this is a collection to treasure. A Love Too Strong To Die Hebert Centrone, Elizabeth Benton, 2003-07 Adventurer at heart, Hebert Centrone has lived on the edge, literally. On his journey through life, he never gave up on love and kept searching for his soul mate. An eyewitness to glory, terror, and tragedy, he has braved discrimination and bitter cold snow storms to become what his friends call an extraordinary mountaineer. He hasn't told his story in his own words until now Among the most intrepid and fearless climbers Hebert Centrone has traveled from coast to coast in search of fresh challenges and new heights to conquer Along the way he has accumulated an extraordinary list of experiences including an excruciating night without a tent in a shallow snow cave With the triumphs came harrowing incidents of suffering and many humiliating situations at the hand of his climbing partner This is just not the end but the very beginning of a journey full of great expectations The Vision of Misery Hill Miles I'Anson,1891 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry Fran Brearton,Alan Gillis,2012-10-25 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry consists of 40 essays by leading scholars and new researchers in the field Beginning with W B Yeats the figure who towers over the century s poetry it includes chapters on the major poets to have emerged in Ireland over the last 100 years The Rosary Magazine ,1915
