Lost Kingdom: Animal Death in the Anthropocene Wendy A. Wiseman, Burak Kesgin, 2024-03-12 The authors in Lost Kingdom grapple with both the catastrophe of mass animal extinction in which the panoply of earthly life is in the accelerating process of disappearing and with the mass death of industrial animal agriculture Both forms of anthropogenic violence against animals cast the Anthropocene as an era of criminality and loss driven by boundless human exceptionalism forcing a reckoning with and an urgent reimagining of human animal relations Without the sleights of hand that would lump humanity into a singular Anthropos of the Anthropocene the authors recognize the differential nature of human impacts on animal life and the biosphere as a whole while affirming the complexity of animal worlds and their profound imbrications in human cultures societies and industries Confronting the reality of the Sixth Mass Extinction and mass animal death requires forms of narrativity that draw on traditional genres and disciplines while signaling a radical break with modern temporalities and norms Chapters in this volume reflect this challenge while embodying the interdisciplinary nature of inquiry into non human animality at the edge of the abyss historiography cultural anthropology post colonial studies literary criticism critical animal studies ethics religious studies Anthropocene studies and extinction studies entwine to illuminate what is arguably the greatest crisis for all creatures in the past 65 million years

Lost Animals, Disappearing Worlds Barbara Allen, 2025-06-12 A moving and motivating collection of portraits of extinct species revealing the profound implications of their disappearance This book presents thirty one extinct species through personal portraits The intimate approach not only highlights each particular species but also explores the broader implications of losing a species forever How do we honor such a loss Can we grieve for species we never knew These animals range from the well known passenger pigeon thylacine and great auk to lesser known creatures like the Arabian ostrich Saint Helena earwig and Bramble Cay melomys Through her poignant portraits Barbara Allen not only tugs on the heartstrings but also aims to inspire readers to protect vulnerable and endangered species today motivating us to play a positive role in conserving our planet s biodiversity
