Storytelling in Participatory Arts with Young People Catherine Heinemeyer, 2020-06-30 This book draws on the author's experience as a storyteller drama practitioner and researcher to articulate an emerging dialogic approach to storytelling in participatory arts educational mental health youth theatre and youth work contexts. It argues that oral storytelling offers a rich and much needed channel for intergenerational dialogue with young people. The book keeps theory firmly tethered to practice. Section 1 Storyknowing traces the history of oral storytelling practice with adolescents across diverse contexts and brings into clear focus the particular nature of the storytelling exchange and narrative knowledge. Section 2 Telling Stories introduces readers to some of the key challenges and possibilities of dialogic storytelling by reflecting on stories from the author's own arts based practice research with adolescents illustrating these with young people's artistic responses to stories. Finally section 3 Story Gaps conceptualises dialogic storytelling by exploring three different gaps: the gap between storyteller and listener; the gaps in the story; and the gaps which storytellers can open up within institutions. The book includes chapters taking a special focus on storytelling in schools and in mental health settings as well as guided reflections for readers to relate the issues raised to their own practice.

Storytelling and Drama Hugo Bowles, 2010 How do characters tell stories in plays and for what dramatic purpose? This volume provides the first systematic analysis of narrative episodes in drama from an interactional perspective applying sociolinguistic theories of narrative and insights from conversation analysis to literary dialogue. The aim of the book is to show how narration can become drama and how analysis of the way a character tells a story can be the key to understanding its role in the unfolding action. The book's interactional approach which analyses the way in which the characteristic features of everyday conversational stories are used by dramatists to create literary effects offers an additional tool for dramatic criticism. The book should be of interest to scholars and students of narrative research, conversation and discourse analysis, stylistics, dramatic discourse and theatre studies. Winner of 2012 Esse Book Award for Language and Linguistics.

Education, Good Living, and Storytelling in Rural Ecuador Gioconda Coello, 2026-01-01 This book centers on the stories and histories of buen vivir (good living) in education in Ecuador focusing on how Indigenous and Afrodescendant Peoples have strategically engaged with state educational initiatives to advance their own epistemic and political projects. It examines the ideas of buen vivir in Fundamental Education programs destined to better the lives of the rural population in Ecuador in the 1960s and 1970s. After the bureaucratization of buen vivir in Ecuador and Bolivia a regional wave of critique problematized the idea yet the historical resonances of governmental uses of buen vivir with previous modernization projects.

have been understudied Moving beyond a national framework it offers a comparative and transnational perspective on how the notion of rural has been constructed through modernizing reason The education experiences explored here are memory on strategies of resistance against dispossession and racism as well as spaces of organization and affirmation of knowledge

The Storyteller's Daughter Victoria Scott,2025-01-15 The BRAND NEW beautiful historical novel from Victoria Scott perfect for fans of Evie Woods Kate Storey and Rachel Burton A secret buried for decades A story that will change everything 1940 When twenty one year old Nita Bineham is offered the chance of independence away from the high walls of her family s Surrey estate she grasps it with both hands But her new role at a local newspaper coincides with the emergence of a sinister rumour in their quiet village that there is a traitor in their midst Nita is determined to prove herself by uncovering the truth but is she prepared for revelations that could change her life forever 2008 Following the death of her great aunt Beth flees London for the privacy of rural Surrey Within the confines of her family s dilapidated manor house she hides from the dual wreckage of her career and her marriage But when her aunt s dying words lead her to a stack of old newspaper articles Beth finds herself drawn into a decades old mystery about a long buried secret and an enemy dangerously close to home Praise for Victoria Scott Beautifully written and delightfully unsettling an evocative read set in an unusual landscape that will pull you in from the first page Rachel Burton The twists and turns revealed kept me turning pages way longer than I was meant to stay awake The way Meredith s mind gets confused as she learns more and more tugged at my heart and reading Ellen s experiences with her beau and how his mental health was essentially compartmentalised in an era when there wasn t much knowledge was heartwrenching Within the tale there are elements of the gothic tradition with old houses fog rising waters stormy weather and more The reader s pulse rate rises as we are committed to following the action I thoroughly enjoyed The House In The Water It consumed me from the start It was the first book by Victoria Scott but I certainly she she will write more Don t you love a dual time line novel I do and this one is exceptional I have read the author s earlier work and this is straying into much darker territory but I think it only serves to show what a great writer she is Atmospheric gripping with huge heart and impossible to put down the very best sort of book Beautiful captivating prose kept me totally engaged in both timelines Wonderful My first by this author but not the last This is definitely a spellbinding and unsettling tale with a dash of romance set in WW2 and 2013 that might haunt your dreams and leave you with a lot to think about A riveting read I was engrossed in the story from the start May Day House is a rehab house for soldiers during WWII They are cared for and sent back to war Years later a couple buys the house which soon appears to be haunted by the soldiers who had been there It is a great story    Perspective Taking in Language Carla Contemori,Petra Hendriks,Franziska Köder,Emar Maier,Jorrig Vogels,Sonja Zeman,2023-05-02
