Machine Doctor:

J. F. Hartz Co. v. Lukaszewski, 200 MICH 230 (1918) ,1918 117      Rujub, the Juggler George Alfred Henty,1893
Excerpt am glad you have all decided so he said quietly In the state the country is the chances of getting to Allahabad are next to nothing Here we may hold out till Lawrence restores order at Lucknow and then he may be able to send a party to bring us in Or the mutineers may draw off and march to Delhi I certainly think the chances are best here besides every rifle we have is of importance and though if any of you had made up your minds to try and escape I should have made no objection I am glad that we shall all stand together here The arrangements were then briefly made for the removal to the courthouse All were to go back and apparently to retire to bed as usual At twelve o'clock the men armed were to call up their servants load them up with such things as were most required and proceed with them the women and children at once to the courthouse Half the men were to remain there on guard while the others would continue with the servants to make journeys backwards and forwards to the bungalows bringing in as much as could be carried the guard to be changed every hour In the morning the servants were all to have the choice given them of remaining with their masters or leaving Captain Forster was the only dissentient He was in favor of the whole party mounting placing the women and children in carriages and making off in a body fighting their way if necessary down to Allahabad He admitted that in addition to the hundred troopers of his own squadron they might be cut off by the mutinous cavalry from Cawnpore fall in with bodies of rebels or be attacked by villagers but he maintained that there was at least some chance of cutting their way through while once shut up in the courthouse escape would be well nigh impossible But you all along agreed to our holding the courthouse Forster the Major said Yes but then I reckoned upon Cawnpore holding out with the assistance of Nana Sahib and upon the country      The Province and the States Weston Arthur Goodspeed,1904      The Lone Star David Downie,1924      Biography Weston Arthur Goodspeed,1904      Verbal Behavior Burrhus Frederic Skinner,1957      The Medical Pickwick ,1924      *Anderson v.
