Media Literacy in Action Renee Hobbs,2021-01-07 The blurring of entertainment information and persuasion is reshaping work life and citizenship As a result our relationship to media has never been so important nor so complex By asking critical questions about what they watch listen to read and use students can be better prepared to be responsible communicators who can use a variety of formats and genres for self expression and advocacy Covering a wide range of topics including the rise of news partisanship algorithmic personalization and social media stereotypes and media addiction advertising and media economics and media influence on personal and social identity Renee Hobbs helps students develop the lifelong learning competencies and habits of mind needed to navigate an increasingly complex media environment Rooted in the best practices of media literacy pedagogy Media Literacy in Action brings an interdisciplinary approach to media studies that engages students with the following features full color layout engaging questions to stimulate thoughtful dialogue and reflection contemporary media examples designed to cultivate intellectual curiosity suggested activities for advancing students confidence in oral written and multimedia expression access to videos and multimedia resources at www.medialiteracyaction.com Mass Media Information, Social Differentiation and Modernization Dhavalasri Shelton Abeywickreme Gunaratne,1972 Digital and Media Literacy Renee Hobbs,2011-07-12 Leading authority on media literacy education shows secondary teachers how to incorporate media literacy into the curriculum teach 21st century skills and select meaningful texts Informal Learning and Digital Media Kirsten Drotner,Hans Siggaard Jensen,Kim Schrøder,2008

The book provides an engaging overview of the ways in which digital media impact on current understandings of informal learning and it offers a range of grounded studies of the changing relations between digital media and informal learning processes with a particular focus on young people. A variety of international scholars examine these processes across a number of sites and settings from Japan to Finland and the USA and they discuss their implications for education, ICT and media. The volume is an ideal resource for graduate students as well as for practitioners and policy makers.

Encyclopedia of the Social and Cultural Foundations of Education Eugene F. Provenzo, Jr., 2008-10-29

More than any other field in education the social and cultural foundations of education reflect many of the conflicts, tensions and forces in American society. This is hardly surprising since the area focuses on issues such as race, gender, socioeconomic class, the impact of technology on learning, what it means to be educated and the role of teaching and learning in a societal context.

The Encyclopedia of the Social and Cultural Foundations of Education provides a comprehensive introduction to the social and cultural foundations of education. With more than 400 entries, the three volumes of this indispensable resource offer a thorough and interdisciplinary view of the field for all those interested in issues involving schools and society.

Key Features

Provides an interdisciplinary perspective from areas such as comparative education, educational anthropology, educational sociology, the history of education and the philosophy of education.

Presents essays on major movements in the field, including the Free School and Visual Instruction movements.

Includes more than 130 biographical entries on important men and women in education.

Offers interpretations of legal material, including Brown v. Board of Education, 1954 and the GI Bill of Rights.

Explores theoretical debates fundamental to the field, such as religion in the public school curriculum, rights of students and teachers, surveillance in schools, tracking and detracking, and many more.

Contains a visual history of American education with nearly 350 images and an accompanying narrative.

Key Themes

Arts, Media and Technology, Curriculum, Economic Issues, Equality and Social Stratification, Evaluation, Testing and Research Methods, History of Education, Law and Public Policy, Literacy, Multiculturalism and Special Populations, Organizations, Schools and Institutions, Religion and Social Values, School Governance, Sexuality and Gender, Teachers, Theories, Models and Philosophical Perspectives.
