Musee Memling:

Hans Memling Alfred Michiels, 2015-09-15 Little is known of Memling's life. It is surmised that he was a German by descent but the definite fact of his life is that he painted at Bruges sharing with the van Eycks who had also worked in that city the honour of being the leading artists of the so called School of Bruges. He carried on their method of painting and added to it a quality of gentle sentiment. In his case as in theirs Flemish art founded upon local conditions and embodying purely local ideals reached its fullest expression. Memlinc, 1905 The Memling Museum--St John's Hospital Bruges Irène Smets, Brugge. Memlingmuseum, 2001. This guide is intended to give the visitor of St John's Hospital in Bruges, Belgium, a thorough understanding of its history and art. The hospital is one of Europe's best preserved medieval hospital complexes. In addition to the site's attraction as a distinctive historic building, it is also home to six exquisite paintings by the Flemish Primitive artist Hans Memling. His paintings are displayed in their original context; they were done for St John's where they hang to this day. This guide gives a history of the hospital, describes the artwork, and explains each section of the hospital with artifacts on display, including its fully preserved seventeenth century pharmacy.

Catalogue of the Harvard University Fine Arts Library, the Fogg Art Museum Harvard University. Fine Arts Library, 1971 Petrus Christus Maryan W. Ainsworth, Maximiliaan P. J. Martens, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1994. This study is an important new account of the life and work of the Flemish master Petrus Christus. It is the first volume to focus specifically on the physical characteristics of his works as criteria for judging attribution, dating, and the extent to which he was indebted to Jan van Eyck and other artists for the development of his technique and style.

The Collections of the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art, Burton Lewis Dunbar, 2005. This volume concerns works by artists active during the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries in the transalpine lands of northern Europe which eventually became the modern nations of Germany, Belgium and the Netherlands. The early Northern pictures feature masterpieces by great artists such as Petrus Christus and Joachim Wtewael as well as radiant examples by other notable artists such as Lucas Cranach the Elder, Bernard van Orley, Jan Gossart and Hans Memling. Each of the twenty five comprehensive entries by Burton L. Dunbar includes a thorough and engaging account of the artist's career, complete technical notes, a detailed description, a fully documented commentary with a discussion of attribution, date, subject and function, an exacting list of references that also summarizes the critical history of each work, and an up to date checklist of the painting's provenance and exhibition history. Every work in the collection is reproduced in full color and with color details and the volume's usefulness is richly enhanced by more than 200 comparative illustrations. The book includes a unique history of the collecting of early Northern paintings in the Midwest. Readers will also be fascinated by the abundance of information derived from the investigation of each work by contemporary experts in the rapidly evolving field of conservation aided by tools such as infrared reflectography and dendrochronology. Burton L. Dunbar is professor of art history at the University of Missouri, Kansas City. The other contributors include Molly Faries, Roger Ward
