Music Scenes Local Translocal And Virtual:

Music Scenes Andy Bennett, Richard A. Peterson, 2004 While more than 80 percent of the world's commercial music is controlled by four multinational firms most music is made and enjoyed in diverse situations divorced from such corporate behemoths. These fourteen original essays examine the fascinating world of music scenes those largely inconspicuous sites where clusters of musicians, producers and fans explore their common musical tastes and distinctive lifestyle choices. Although most music scenes come and go with hardly a trace they nevertheless give immense satisfaction to their participants and a few New York bop jazz, Merseybeat, Memphis rockabilly, London punk, Bronx hiphop achieve fame and spur musical innovations. To date serious study of the scenes phenomenon has focused mainly on specific music scenes while paying less attention to recurrent dynamics of scene life such as how individuals construct and negotiate scenes to the various activities. This volume remedies that neglect. The editors distinguish between three types of scenes local, translocal and virtual which provide the organizing framework for the essays. Aspects of local scenes which are confined to specific areas are explored through essays on Chicago blues, rave, karaoke, teen pop and salsa. The section on translocal scenes which involve the coming together of scattered local scenes around a particular type of music and lifestyle includes articles on Riot Grrrls, goths, art music and anarcho punk. Aspects of virtual scenes in which fans communicate via the internet are illustrated using alternative country, the Canterbury sound, postrock and Kate Bush fans. Also included is an essay that shows how the social conditions in places where jazz was made influenced that music's development.

Music Scenes and Migrations

David Treece, 2020-06-30 Music Scenes and Migrations brings together new work from Brazilian and European scholars around the themes of musical place and transnationalism across the Atlantic triangle connecting Brazil, Africa and Europe. Moving beyond now contested models for conceptualizing international musical relations and hierarchies of powers and influence such as global, local or centre periphery the volume draws attention instead to the role of the city in particular in producing, signifying and mediating music making in the colonial and post colonial Portuguese speaking world. In considering the roles played by cities as hubs of cultural intersection, socialization, exchange and transformation as sites of political intervention and contestation and as homes to large concentrations of consumers, technologies and media, Rio de Janeiro necessarily figures prominently given its historical importance as an international port at the centre of the Lusophone Atlantic world. The volume also gives attention to other urban centres within Brazil and abroad towards which musicians and musical traditions have migrated and converged such as São Paulo, Lisbon and Madrid where they have reinvented themselves where notions of Brazilian and Lusophone identity have been reconfigured and where independent, peripheral and underground scenes have contested the hegemony of the musical mainstream.
