Experiencing Architecture in the Nineteenth Century Edward Gillin, H. Horatio Joyce, 2018-10-18 Bringing together fourteen original essays this collection opens up new perspectives on the architectural history of the nineteenth century by examining the buildings of the period through the lens of experience With a focus on the experience of the ordinary building user rather than simply on the intentions of the designer the book shows that new and important insights can be brought to our understanding of Victorian architecture The chapters present a range of ideas and new research some examining individual building case studies from grand hotels and clubhouses in New York to the parliament buildings of Westminster and others exploring conceptual questions about the nature of architectural experience whether sensory or otherwise Yet they share the premise that the idea of the experience of architecture took on a new and particular significance with the rise of industrial modernity and they examine what contemporary people both architects and non architects understood by this idea The insights in this volume extend beyond the study of Victorian architecture Together they suggest how experience might be used as a framework to produce a more convincingly historical account of the artefacts of architectural history

Museum Buildings Paul v Naredi-Rainer, Oliver Hilger, 2004 Museums are architectural trend setters Culture sponsoring and their increasing role as tourist attractions are guarantees for an ongoing boom in museum construction A tradition and typology developed over the centuries the experience gained in recent decades and cutting edge technology all contribute to the practice of modern day museum building History and form site development floor plan air conditioning and climate technology are just some examples of the subjects treated systematically in the first section of this design manual Some 70 international museum case studies exemplify solutions and emphasize specific museum design issues such as spatial organisation and arrangement and lighting Paul von Naredi Rainer is an expert on the subject of museum construction and author of the widely read Architektur und Harmonie Architecture and Harmony Herbert Pfeiffer Helmut F O M 1 4ller and Hans J 1 4rgen Schmitz teach at Dortmund University Oliver Hilger and Gerhard Kahlert at RWTH Aachen

Planning Successful Museum Building Projects Walter L. Crimm, Martha Morris, Carole L. Wharton, 2009-02-16 In an era of expanded responsibility and constricted funding museum personnel often need strong practical guidance on the best practices for building projects The authors of Planning Successful Museum Building Projects discuss the reasons for undertaking building projects new construction renovation expansion the roles and responsibilities of key players the importance of a strong vision and the best methods for selecting architects and construction firms They also offer in depth information about budgeting and finance feasibility studies capital campaigns marketing and communications as well as advice on how to live through the disorienting process of construction manage post opening needs and evaluate the project s success over time Planning Successful Museum Building Projects provides all the tools for successfully managing projects from predesign through opening and beyond

Louis I. Kahn Louis I. Kahn, Luca Bellinelli, 1999 Accademia di architettura Mendrisio This publication on the construction of the Kimbell Art Museum by Louis I Kahn may prove very useful to students and to anyone interested in gaining further knowledge of the distinctive features of the Kimbell museum It documents the long and arduous quest that often characterizes a creative process even that of a great master such as Louis I Kahn The design of the Kimbell Art Museum is the product of extraordinary intuition and results in a masterly synthesis that solves all the problems posed by the site and the specific purpose of the construction i Cataloghi dell Accademia di architettura 2 The series I Cataloghi documents the exhibitions i e reviews undertaken by the Academy of Architecture of the architectural works and events of the 20th century The initial stages are dedicated primarily to a comparison between the principal figures of this century and contemporary emerging architects This comparison attempts to trace the link that unites the birth and development of a theory to its subsequent concrete application along the winding path of research The exhibitions and their accompanying catalogues aim to offer all readers not only those attending the Academy a review of architects and architectural works that have enriched and continue to enrich the discipline of building
