Netflix Top Shows Review:

Focus On: 100 Most Popular Television Series by Sony Pictures Television Wikipedia contributors, Female Agencies and Subjectivities in Film and Television Diğdem Sezen, Feride Çiçekoğlu, Aslı Tunç, Ebru Thwaites Diken, 2020-10-29 This volume provides an overview of the landscape of mediated female agencies and subjectivities in the last decade. In three sections the book covers the films of women directors television shows featuring women in lead roles and the representational struggles of women in cultural context with a special focus on changes in the transformative power of narratives and images across genres and platforms. This collection derives from the editors multi year experiences as scholars and practitioners in the field of film and television. It is an effort that aims to describe and understand female agencies and subjectivities across screen narratives. Gather scholars from around the world to generate timely discussions and inspire fellow researchers and practitioners of film and television. Divine Programming Charlotte E.

Howell, 2020-03-02 From the mid 90s to the present television drama with religious content has come to reflect the growing cultural divide between white middle America and concentrated urban elites. As author Charlotte E Howell argues in this book by 2016 television narratives of white Christianity had become entirely disconnected from the religion they were meant to represent. Programming labeled family friendly became a euphemism for white middlebrow America and developing audience niches became increasingly significant to serial dramatic television. Utilizing original case studies and interviews Divine Programming investigates the development writing producing marketing and positioning of key series including 7th Heaven, Friday Night Lights, Rectify, Supernatural, Jane the Virgin, Daredevil and Preacher. As this book shows there has historically been a deep ambivalence among television production cultures regarding religion and Christianity more specifically. It illustrates how middle American television audiences lost significance within the Hollywood television industry and how this in turn has informed and continues to inform television programming on a larger scale. In recent years upscale audience niches have aligned with the perceived tastes of affluent educated multicultural and importantly secular elites. As a result the televised representation of white Christianity had to be othered and shifted into the unreality of fantastic genres to appeal to niche audiences. To examine this effect Howell looks at religious representation through four approaches: establishment, distancing, displacement and use and looks at series across a variety of genres and outlets in order to provide varied analyses of each theme. Female Detectives on Post-Network Television Alison Wielgus, 2025-12-11 Building on contemporary scholarship on post network television feminism, melodrama and crime television Alison Wielgus analyzes post network female detective television through the lenses of genre, industry and discourses of police abolition to argue for a radicalization of crime television that incorporates discourses of restorative justice and a feminist ethics of care.
