Ordinary Man Extraordinary Feelings:

Ordinary Men, Extraordinary Service Chris Lowndes, 2011 The World War One experiences of the 9th Battalion Queensland AIF Reflections of the Gallipoli Campaign The men of the 9th Battalion a Queensland based unit of the AIF were among the very first wave of volunteers to enlist for war service in what was initially thought of as the great adventure with their mates following the outbreak of World War 1 For these young men reality would soon see their world turn upside down Chris follows this Battalion of brave men through their experiences recounting the lives of individual men within the battalion obtained from diary and service records This book also take time to present in a well paced manner the military strategy and planning behind the Gallipoli campaign Ordinary Man, Extraordinary Feelings, Michael's Feelings in Poetry Michael Eugene Rickett, 2013-01-13 Within this book is the testament on the development of a new and emerging writer my trials accomplishments and failures most of the poems are factual and true life experiences They show my quest for love the pain of loss and the ability to overcome Witness an artist and his talent from the pains of carrying his creation inside to the joys of creating a wonder he just birthed See my aches and pains of learning falling in love for the first time and not being afraid of asking questions read about one mans struggle to find his identity while allowing the words to caress you with passion lure you with darkness and intrigue you by their mystery Travel paths of destruction or build glorious cities Experience every emotion possible through these pages doorways to hidden passages to your mind My promise to you the reader is one of the most satisfying journeys anyone has ever had with a book Ordinary Men, Extraordinary Heroes Dexter Yager, Ron Ball, 1992 Shadow of a Lion Anne Edwards, 2021-01-15 On September 23 1947 a number of the film industry s leading writers producers and directors received subpoenas that summoned them to Washington to testify before the Un American Activities Committee of the House of Representatives The McCarthy era had begun and with it the destruction of hundreds of careers This bold multidimensional novel recreates life in the inner circles of the film industry in Washington Hollywood and the major capitals of Europe portraying desparate people trying to rebuild their lives in the wake of McCarthyism

Feeling as the Principle of Individuation and Socialization Rudolph Michael Binder, 1903 Asian Film Journeys Rashmi Doraiswamy, Latika Padgaonkar, 2011-02-02 For lovers of Asian cinema and for those simply curious to know its trends and moods experiments and innovations since it strode the world stage with assurance in the mid 80s Asian Film Journeys is a feast It presents a selection of articles that appeared in the pages of Cinemaya The Asian Film Quarterly between 1988 and 2004 articles that closely tracked the bold new film narrative of both the well known and the lesser known cinemas as it unfolded The Quarterly remained for fifteen years the one and only serious yet lively platform for writing on the cinemas of Asian countries Given that the writers were mostly Asian apart from some keen and long standing followers of Asian cinema from the West the magazine offered for the first time a truly authentic point of view a look at films from within their cultures The book gives a bird s eye view of the style and substance art and craft of these cinemas and captures some of the Asian air it let in Fascism, the War, and Structures of Feeling in Italy, 1943-1945 Simonetta Falasca-Zamponi, 2023-05-23 On July 25 1943 news of Mussolini's resignation and subsequent arrest stunned Italians leaving them dumbfounded After two decades fascism had fallen without any advance warning As festive events marked the incredible outcome and reminders of the past were destroyed an uncontrollable joy seemed to pervade Italians But what did people actually celebrate How did they understand the bygone dictatorship which was soon to be reincarnated in the Italian Social Republic RSI Drawing on more than one hundred diaries written by ordinary citizens and some prominent figures as well and inspired by Raymond Williams's concept of structures of feeling the book examines Italians' perspectives on fascism at a very critical moment in their history With the country mired in a devastating war further complicated by the September 8 1943 armistice with the Allies and subsequent German occupation followed by the eruption of an Italian against Italian conflict the switching of alliances and the declaration of war against Germany on October 13 1943 the fast pace of history seemed to deflect Italians' attention from their immediate past Amidst the daily experience of bombings hunger displacement and death coming to terms with twenty years of dictatorship turned out to be an arduous enterprise Whether those who had lived under the fascist regime wished not to think of it and not to speak any more about it as philosopher Benedetto Croce maintained it is hard to ascertain In truth little is known of what Italians felt and thought about fascism after its precipitous demise This book remedies the gap in historical scholarship by assessing how Italians confronted their present and negotiated their past during the two years from the fall of the regime to the definitive defeat of the RSI and the end of the world war in May 1945 By bringing to life the cultural imaginaries and practices of the past the book raises ostensibly intractable questions on the epochal impact of what often appears as inconsequential the typically unseen and seemingly banal power of everyday experiences Cinemaya ,1990 The State of Grace Illustrated from Nature ...
