Oregon Historical Quarterly March 1920:

The Quarterly of the Oregon Historical Society, Vol. 21 Frederic George Young, 2015-07-13 Excerpt from The Quarterly of the Oregon Historical Society Vol 21 March 1920 December 1920 Time is a relative quantity and the age of an institution or a nation is a matter of comparison The Rocky Mountain range seems hoary indeed as compared with the generations of men who have lived in the Willamette Valley and yet geologists tell us that this mountain barrier belongs to the most recent geologic time as compared with the countless aeons since first the Appalachian range lifted its head We are all young here in Oregon Contrast the brief existence of our educational institutions with such a foundation as Harvard nearly ready to celebrate her tercentenary and yet Harvard is young compared with the University of Paris with its nearly 800 years of continuous history So while it is my pleasing task to narrate some of the facts concerning one of the oldest educational institutions west of the Mississippi River preceded indeed only by the splendid foundation laid by Rev Jason Lee at Chemeketa I realize that every work of man here is recent and immature by comparison Harvard was founded in 1636 Yale in 1701 and many a college in the East and Middle West has celebrated its hundredth anniversary About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
