Wolfgang Gortschacher, David Malcolm

New Poets Of Ireland:

The New Irish Poets Selina Guinness, 2004 The New Irish Poets is a landmark anthology of the newest generation of Irish writers now making their mark in poetry at the start of the 21st century Selina Guinness's lively selection covers over 30 poets of all ages from all parts of Ireland who've produced first collections over the past ten years offering rare insights into how the freshest writing talents have responded to a period of profound social cultural and political change in the Republic and in Northern Ireland Dynamic and confident in their diverse voices whether conversational caustic or solemn in tone these poets open up the world to unexpected horizons unsuspected pleasures and surprising conclusions The book supplies a new measure for Ireland in the coming times The New Irish Poets features all of the prominent new poets who've received major awards and international critical recognition as well as giving a platform to less well known new writers published by small presses Illustrated with photographs and helpful editorial commentaries the book includes a parallel text selection of poems by three new Irish language poets Nearly half the writers are women and there's a broad mix of young and old ranging from Fergus Allen now in his 80s but who made his debut ten years ago to the youngest Leanne O'Sullivan who is only 21 her first collection Waiting for Her Clothes is published by Bloodaxe at the same time as this anthology With its wide ranging up to the minute selections The New Irish Poets bears witness to the amazing growth and flowering of contemporary Irish poetry over the past decade

The Future Always Makes Me So Thirsty Sinéad Morrissey, Stephen Connolly, 2016

Writing Home Chiamaka Enyi-Amadi, Pat Boran, 2019-10 In Writing Home The New Irish Poets more than 50 poets from all over the world explore the many meanings and connotations of the word home Hailing from places as diverse as India and Italy Poland and Pakistan Canada and the Democratic Republic of the Congo as well as the US the UK and Ireland itself together they present an updated picture of a changing country while at the same time expanding the very definition of writing from Ireland The poems gathered here are as various and lively as we might hope for Some contributors might be said to write home in the traditional sense describing and explaining what they find in the place they now live for others writing home is a determined creative act of self definition For all of them there is the real sense that writing is itself a kind of home building not least at a time when so many borders physical and psychological are under threat of closure across the world

Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century David Pierce, 2000 Arranged chronologically by decade from the 1890s to the 1990s each decade is divided into two different types of writing critical documentary and imaginative writing and is accompanied by a headnote which situates it thematically and chronologically The Reader is also structured for thematic study by listing all the pieces included under a series of topic headings The wide range of material encompasses writings of well known figures in the Irish canon and neglected writers alike This will appeal to the general reader but also makes Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century ideal as a core text providing a unique focus for detailed study in a single volume
