New Public Management Kathleen McLaughlin, Ewan Ferlie, Stephen Osborne P, 2005-07-08 In this original comprehensive and multidisciplinary analysis of the impact of New Public Management in the UK leading international authorities present evaluations of current thinking and highlight the challenges for the future Handbook on Critical Political Economy and Public Policy Christoph Scherrer, Ana Garcia, Joscha Wullweber, 2023-01-20 This comprehensive and stimulating Handbook examines the contribution of political economy to public policy It provides an overview of several strands of critical political economy supported by case studies from OECD countries Latin America South Africa and South and East Asia The Oxford Handbook of Australian Politics Jenny M. Lewis, Anne Tiernan, 2021-10-20 The Oxford Handbook of Australian Politics is a comprehensive collection that considers Australia's distinctive politics both ancient and modern at all levels and across many themes It examines the factors that make Australian politics unique and interesting while firmly placing these in the context of the nation's Indigenous and imported heritage and global engagement The book presents an account of Australian politics that recognizes and celebrates its inherent diversity by taking a thematic approach in six parts The first theme addresses Australia's unique inheritances examining the development of its political culture in relation to the arrival of British colonists and their conflicts with First Nations peoples as well as the resulting geopolitics The second theme improvisation focuses on Australia's political institutions and how they have evolved Place making is then considered to assess how geography distance Indigenous presence and migration shape Australian politics Recurrent dilemmas centres on a range of complex political problems and their influence on contemporary political practice Politics policy and public administration covers how Australia has been a world leader in some respects and a laggard in others when dealing with important policy challenges The final theme studying Australian politics introduces some key areas in the study of Australian politics and identifies the strengths and shortcomings of the discipline The Oxford Handbook of Australian Politics is an opportunity for others to consider the nation's unique politics from the perspective of leading and emerging scholars and to gain a strong sense of its imperfections its enduring challenges and its strengths Sociolinguistic Research Robert Lawson, Dave Sayers, 2017-07-14 Shortlisted for the LSA Leonard Bloomfield Book Award 2017 Sociolinguistic Research Application and Impact provides a unique overview of international research projects showcasing their positive outcomes and offering critical insights and constructive critiques into the meaning of impact in contemporary research The book includes original findings from cutting edge research from scholars such as Mary Bucholtz Walt Wolfram and Peter Patrick coverage of organisational contexts including education government justice heritage and the workplace activities including after school programmes workplace training courses social media campaigns and video productions application of research to professional practice including teaching primary school to university adjudication police interviewing and governmental policymaking contributors personal reflections on the research process and its outcomes including constructive critiques of institutional definitions of impact With chapters spanning research across five continents Sociolinguistic Research Application and Impact is essential reading for sociolinguistic researchers students embarking on sociolinguistic research and anyone interested in the practical application of research on language and society The Routledge Companion to Nonprofit Marketing Adrian Sargeant, Walter Wymer Jr, 2007-11-22 Written by a leading team of international experts this is a timely collection of cutting edge articles It offers a complete overview of marketing issues in the nonprofit sector and a review of the latest research The State of Public Administration Donald C Menzel, Harvey E White, 2015-01-28 The trends and practices of public administration are ever changing and it is essential that they be appraised from time to time Designed as a capstone survey of the field The State of Public Administration focuses on leading edge issues challenges and opportunities that confront PA study and practice in the 21st Century Differences in Venture Capital Financing of U S , Uk, German and French Information Technology Start-Ups Michael Jurgen Garbade, 2011-04 Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2011 in the subject Business economics Investment and Finance University of Kassel Research Group Entrepreneurship language English abstract Independent Venture Capital IVC has been paramount in the emergence of the information technology industry in both the United States and Europe There are relatively few large global information technology companies in Europe A widening gap is observable in the success rate of IVC backed start ups between the U S and Europe in the information technology industry This difference could be attributable to the differences in the venture capital financing of start ups in the U S UK Germany and France This book deals with Differences in Venture Capital Financing of U S UK German and French Information Technology Start ups The comparative analysis is conducted on a microeconomic level managerial venture capital research i e on the venture capital firm level The differences are analyzed for the whole venture capital investment cycle contact phase initial screening phase due diligence phase deal structuring and negotiation phase management phase value adding services and exit phase The research framework model examines the following differences in the venture capital investment cycle average size of investment in the seed stage average size of investment in the start up stage average size of investment in the growth stage percentage of start ups in pre revenue phase at time of investment percentage of start ups not managed by founders but experienced managers percentage of investment in start ups with more than two products percentage of market analysis due diligence done informally typical liquidation preference multiple percentage syndicated exits that are outperformers number of tranches per investment round number of board seats per partner and the cash multiple X that defines an outperformer The empirical research work is based on an extensive African Journal of International Affairs & Development ,2018 Reform and Leadership in the Public Sector Joe L. Wallis, Brian Dollery, Linda McLoughlin, 2007 The authors provide a fresh and accessible multi disciplinary perspective on public management reform in this study The work includes a broad survey of the paradigms and patterns that have shaped and differentiated the reform process in different countries The book focuses on two themes not usually considered together

First the scope and limits of the role economists have played in reform processes not simply in terms of providing analytical models but in the actual leadership required to advance reform coherently Secondly the authors examine the importance of developing leadership at all levels of the public sector to take advantage of the opportunities reforms have generated and to create new sources of public value In bringing these themes together they uniquely show how the family of economic theories public choice agency theory and new institutional economics can be adapted to explain why there might be a demand for developing public sector leadership that reflects an appreciative managerial style as opposed to the hard edged contractualism often associated with public management reform
