New Religious Movements Concilium 1983:

Beshara and Ibn 'Arabi Suha Taji-Farouki,2007-11-01 Investigating sufi inspired spirituality in the modern world this multi faceted and interdisciplinary volume focuses on Beshara a spiritual movement that applies the teachings of Ibn Arabi in a non Muslim context It traces the movement s emergence in sixties Britain and analyses its major teachings and practices exploring through this case study the interface between sufism and the New Age and the encounter between Islam and the West Examining from a global perspective the impact of cultural transformations associated with modernization and globalization on religion this timely volume concludes by tracing possible futures of sufi spirituality both in the West and in the Muslim world

Radical Christianity Christopher Rowland,2004-12-09 At different times and places Christian ideas have had a radical critical role and have served as a basis for programs of social change This concise and clearly written book documents the history of radical Christianity by discussing some of the most important developments and figures from the millenarian movements of early Christianity to the liberation theology of today Christopher Rowland begins by discussing the character and transformation of early Christian ideas and the ongoing patterns of protest against the status quo Subsequent chapters deal with the legacy of the Apocalypse and with the work of Thomas Muenzer and Gerrard Winstanley A final chapter on liberation theology examines the role of religion in Latin America today where basic Christian communities have emerged as power houses of social and political reform Radical Christianity is a reading of recovery which shows that social criticism and hope for a better world are integral features of the Christian tradition The book will be of great interest to students of religion and to anyone concerned with the role of religious ideas in past and present day societies
