Salvation in the New Testament offers an analysis of the soteriological perspectives and language of the different books of the New Testament Special attention is given to the imagery used in expressing soteriological ideas Salvation deals with becoming part of the people of God In Salvation in the New Testament special attention is given to the nature and power of the salvific language used in the New Testament to express the dynamics of salvation Individual articles on the different books of the New Testament highlight the diverse perspectives offered in these documents The emphasis especially falls on the different images and metaphors which were used to express the event and moment of salvation rather than on the results ethics or behaviour of salvation An overview of the different perspectives on soteriology in the New Testament offers the opportunity to compare similarities and differences in concepts and expressions It also illustrates the dynamic interaction between historical situations and salvific language and expression    Biblical Theology of the Old Testament Revere Franklin Weidner,1896

The Son of Man as the Last Adam Yongbom Lee,2012-07-01 Most New Testament scholars today agree that Jesus used an enigmatic self designation bar nasha the Son of Man translated into Greek as ho huios tou anthropou in the Synoptic Gospels In contrast Paul the earliest New Testament writer nowhere mentions the phrase in his letters Does this indicate that the Gospel writers simply misunderstood the generic sense of the Aramaic idiom and used it as a christological title in connection with Daniel 7 as some scholars claim Paul demonstrates explicit and sophisticated Adam Christology in Romans 5 and 1 Corinthians 15 In contrast there is no real equivalent in the Synoptic Gospels Does this indicate that Adam Christology in Romans 5 and 1 Corinthians 15 was essentially a Pauline invention to which the Evangelists were oblivious In this study Yongbom Lee argues that in addition to the Old Testament contemporary Jewish exegetical traditions and his Damascus Christophany Paul uses the early church tradition in particular its implicit primitive Adam Jesus typology and the Son of Man saying traditions reflected in the Synoptic Gospels as a source of his Adam Christology

Johann Jakob Wettstein's Principles for New Testament Textual Criticism Silvia Castelli,2020-08-17 In Johann Jakob Wettstein's Principles for New Testament Textual Criticism Silvia Castelli investigates the genesis development and legacy of Wettstein's criteria for evaluating New Testament variant readings Wettstein's guidelines the Animadversiones et cautiones are the first well organized essay on New Testament text critical methodology first published in the Prolegomena

to his New Testament in 1730 and republished with some changes in 1752 In his essay Wettstein presents a new text critical method based on the manuscripts evidence and on the critic s judgment Moving away from the authority invested in established printed editions Wettstein s methodology thus effectively promotes and enhances intellectual freedom The second part of this volume offers a critical text and an annotated English translation of Wettstein s text critical principles
