Closer Walk New Testament Bruce Wilkinson, Calvin W. Edwards, Paula Kirk, 1997 A Treasury of Illustrations and Quotations from Walking With Jesus Robert B. Callahan Sr., 2015-06-01 The Apostle Paul in exercising his ineffable wisdom draws this magnificent letter to a close in an extraordinary manner Certainly he could have concluded it after telling the masters and servants how to treat one another But no he did not He proceeded to challenge them to become Christ's Ambassadors and to be proficient in this high calling despite the daily obstacles pressures and temptations What does Paul boldly state after having told Christ's followers that we henceforth be no more children tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine by the sleight trickery of men and cunning craftiness whereby they lie in wait to deceive That they will have a life of ease no problems or worries and no challenges disappointments or hardships No But he did tell them how to conduct themselves in all of life's different phases Further that they were to walk in love as Christ hath also loved us and that not everyone hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God Paul contra to the practice today of many preachers teachers and church officers knew the problems that Christ's followers faced and he boldly addressed them. He unequivocally stated that there were things appointed for them to do. Knowing these things and the difficulties encountered in following Christ, he issued a battle call to each and every follower, saying, "take up unto you the whole armor of God that ye may be able to stand in the evil day and having done all to stand." Paul was forthright in describing the benefits and challenges of Walking With Jesus, as well as the attitude, conduct, and conversation precluding one from entering the kingdom of Christ and God. If we are to be Christ's Ambassadors, whether it be preacher, teacher, church officer, or professing Christian, we are to know our duties and carry them out resolutely. What are they? They include but are not limited to discharging our duties honorably, being loyal subjects, following instructions, knowing the Word, and obeying Christ's commands. May we, along with Paul, pray the following with humility and sincerity: For which I am an ambassador, that therein I may speak boldly as I ought to speak as one of His ambassadors.

The Oswald Chambers Devotional Reader Oswald Chambers, 1990 Walking Wisely Robert B. Callahan Sr., 2013-01-16

The Apostle Paul leaves no stone teaching or truth untouched as he continues developing a pathway for each of us built upon the foundation of the Triune God. He has carefully and prayerfully utilized the words in this magnificent letter to clearly, concisely, and forcefully relate the truths revealed to him by the Lord Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. Paul, in this illuminating sixth chapter of Ephesians, weaves together enlightening commands and counsel that will enhance the lives of people Walking With Jesus. He tells the believers what to do and what not to do in simple, straightforward language. He succinctly describes Christlike conduct before expounding upon the lifestyles of those who will have no inheritance in the Kingdom of God and Christ. These tough words make one stop and think. At least, they should. The Apostle continues Walking With Jesus by urging Christ's followers to walk wisely, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise. After building this part of God's pathway, Paul focuses our attention on the two most important relationships in one's life: i) marriage and ii) Christ and His church. The truths presented by the Apostle provide Christ's companions as they walk together with an increasing faith, plus joy, knowledge, love, strength, and wisdom. May we ask for nothing more, nothing less, and nothing else.
