New Testament Its Making Meaning:

The Making of the English New Testament Edgar Johnson Goodspeed,1925      Hearing the New Testament Joel B. Green,1995 Exciting approaches to biblical interpretation are introduced in this volume by contributors who are distinguished as leaders in the field of New Testament studies Each chapter introduces a particular approach to interpretation and demonstrates with biblical texts how that approach can be used by students and pastors

The International Revision Commentary on the New Testament Philip Schaff,1882      The New Testament Canon Harry Y. Gamble,2002-03-12

This careful evaluation of the problem of the New Testament canon engages historical literary and theological questions often not raised by the general reader How did this collection of writings come into being What assumptions and intentions contributed to its formation Who or what determined its contents On what basis did special authority come to be attached to these writings How does the character of this collection bear upon its interpretation In what ways does this collection claim or exercise religious authority After grappling with these basic questions Gamble concludes The history of the canon indicates clearly enough that the contents of the New Testament were determined by the church on the basis of tradition one cannot have scripture without also having tradition

Critical and Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament Heinrich August Wilhelm Meyer,1885      The Princeton Theological Review ,1924 Includes section Reviews of recent literature

Transforming Graduate Biblical Education Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza,Kent Harold Richards,2010 This unique collection of essays originating in seminars held at SBL's Annual and International Meetings explores the current ethos and discipline of graduate biblical education from different social locations and academic contexts It includes international voices of well established scholars who have urged change for some time alongside younger scholars with new perspectives The individual contributions emerge from a variegated set of experiences in graduate biblical studies and a critical analysis of those experiences The volume is divided into four areas of investigation The first section discusses the ethos of biblical studies and social location and the second explores different cultural national formations of the discipline The third section considers the experiences and visions of graduate biblical studies while the last section explores how to transform the discipline All the contributions offer ways to transform graduate biblical education so that it becomes a socializing power that in turn can transform the present academic ethos of biblical studies Back cover

Critical and Exegetical Hand-book to the New Testament Heinrich August Wilhelm Meyer,1885      New Testament Story David L. Barr,1995

The thesis of this book is that every New Testament writing stands within a story even if it does not tell stories The approach allows readers to view the documents as vital elements in the lives of real persons The book maintains its focus on bringing the writings alive and shows how critical study enhances understanding of their meanings Its prime goal is teaching students to read these writings for themselves bridging the chasms of language history and culture that separate them from us The latest methods of research are utilized in this quest but the focus always remains on the New Testament documents
