Excerpt from My Life Among the Bluejackets On Board our ships there is a watch called the anchor watch the ship is lying at her moorings and there is not much to guard against but all alert the men are at their posts still there is a certain amount of leisure and many a life story is told and many a yarn is spun during those quiet hours I have been asked to write the story of my life but how to do it amidst a whirl of work I did not know and whether if written it would do any good I could not be sure however I am taking advantage of a short anchor watch to put down a few recollections and if they interest and stir up any person to work for God s glory and for the good of others I shall be amply repaid About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works My Life Among the Bluejackets Dame Agnes Elizabeth Weston,1909 My Life Among the Bluejackets Dame Agnes Weston,1911
