My Life The Early Years:

My Life: The Early Years Bill Clinton, 2005-05-31 1 New York Times Bestseller President Bill Clinton's My Life is the strikingly candid portrait of a global leader who decided early in life to devote his intellectual and political gifts and his extraordinary capacity for hard work to serving the public. My Life: The Early Years Volume I shows us the progress of a remarkable American who through his own enormous energies and efforts fueled by an impassioned interest in the political process made the unlikely journey from his birth in Hope, Arkansas to his election as the 42nd President of the United States. Also available My Life: The Present Years Volume II My Life, My Country, My World James Leonard Mack, 2008 My Life William Mair, 1911 In My Life Debbie Geller, 2000 Without the determination, magnetism, vision, good manners, respectable clothes, and financial security of Brian Epstein, no one would ever have heard of John Paul George and Ringo Starr. In Liverpool in December 1961, Brian Epstein met the Beatles in his small office and signed a management deal. The rest may be history, but it's a history that Epstein created along with a blueprint for all pop groups since. Out of the public eye, Epstein was flamboyant and charismatic. He drank, gambled compulsively, and took drugs to excess. But people remember his wit, charm, and capacity to inspire affection and loyalty. That's when he wasn't depressed. Even suicidal, Epstein was Jewish in a society filled with anti-Semitism. He was homosexual at a time when it was a crime to be gay, and from his teenage days to the end of his life, he suffered arrests, beatings, and blackmail, all of which had to be kept secret. This book tells the story of Epstein's complicated life through the reminiscences of his friends and family. Based on dozens of interviews with Paul McCartney, George Martin, and Marianne Faithfull, among others, plus many of Epstein's personal diaries, this book uncovers the truth behind the enigmatic young man who unintentionally caused a cultural revolution and in the process destroyed himself.

NO POT, NO WINDOW Or ?How I Changed My Life from Sour Lemons to Sweet Lemonade? Mary Burton King, 2010-05-24 No Pot No Window is a true story about my life starting in the year 1951 when I was born in Marshall, Texas, to poor, uneducated parents. This book is intended to be a motivator and inspiration to all the people struggling to survive financially as I did for the majority of my life. The expression "no pot, no window" means you are so poor that you don't have a pot to pee in or a window to throw it out. I believe poverty, lack of education, a negative home environment, alcohol, and/or drug abuse, bad judgment, a single parent home, disease, illness, and sometimes just plain bad luck keeps the syndrome of "no pot, no window" perpetuating generation after generation. My abusive alcoholic father abandoned my two sisters and me when I was nine years old, and my codependent mother was absent from my life for many years. After my father left and my parents divorced, my mother spent the rest of her life looking for another husband to support her. She was married nine times and never did find her Prince Charming; just another drunk she met at a bar and dragged home. When I was ten years old, my mother sent my two sisters and me to live with her parents for over three years, and during this period, she was completely absent from our lives. My maternal grandparents, who were survivors of the Great Depression of 1929, were very tight with their money and affection They really did not want to raise three young children but decided we would be a valuable asset as farmhands on their five acre farm My mother came back into my life when I was thirteen years old and the saga of stepfathers began At the age of sixteen I had a job a car and was self sufficient Unfortunately I was also a juvenile delinquent because I had little or no parental supervision For lack of any other options I joined the military in 1969 during the height of the Vietnam War and began the long journey of becoming an adult Due to my immaturity and poor judgment I was married and divorced three times before the age of thirty and became a single parent to my only child When I was thirty two years old I was diagnosed with Stage II breast cancer and spent the next five years struggling to stay alive physically and financially With the assistance of the military I was able to obtain my bachelor of arts degree from the University of Mississippi in 1982 and a masters of forensic science from George Washington University in 1986 After twenty one years of active duty service I subsequently retired as a lieutenant from the United States Navy in 1993 I refused to accept and was able to overcome the no pot no window plight because of my perseverance hard work and most importantly advanced education I changed my life from sour lemons to sweet lemonade
