Lisa Faulkner

My Mummy Me:

Mother Me Zara H Phillips, 2011-02-01 The adopted daughter of loving parents Zara Phillips felt out of place since childhood. Although cherished, she grew up deeply insecure and alone, consumed by a void she found impossible to fill. Isolation led to alienation until her talent brought her to the center of the heady London rock n roll scene of the 1980s. Zara became lost in a downward spiral of drugs, alcohol, and destructive relationships. An intense search for the truth of her birth led to an awakening and then to recovery. Zara's activism for adoptee rights springs from a very personal passion. In the end, it was Zara's experience of becoming a mother that revealed what being adopted really meant. For the first time she gained deep understanding and compassion for both her birth mother and her adoptive mother and was able to start the healing process. Mother Me bravely illuminates the lifelong impact of adoption on every member of the adoption triad: adoptee, birth mother, and adoptive mother, as well as the families of each. The tale of Zara's search for her birth mother and her path to recovery is riveting, as are the stories of many people sharing her past.

From Mother to Mother

Lisa Faulkner, 2017-03-09 I believe that most of us cook and create by being given nuggets of inspiration. We take recipes and cook from them, then we cook them again and tweak them and add things, and then we cook them again. It was this idea of passing on favourite dishes to the next generation that inspired my first book, Recipes from my Mother for my Daughter. This book wouldn't have come about without an email I wrote to my family and friends who are mothers. I asked them what they liked to cook and eat, what their fallbacks are, their comfort dishes, the meals they make for their families when time is short. I have tweaked, rewritten, added and played around with their ideas and added my own family's staples, but without their willingness to share their treasured favourites, there would be no book. In a world that is ever changing and not always a smooth ride, food is a thing that binds us. So here are those treasures from mother to mother, with all my love and gratitude.

Lisa x My Mummy and Me Tina Macnaughton, 2008 Little Mouse loves nothing better than to skip and run, giggle and have fun with mummy. This delicately illustrated book celebrates the beautiful bond shared between mother and child.
