Parallel Practices:

Social Justice K. V. Cybil, 2019-04-08 This book explores the political and philosophical underpinnings of exclusion and social injustice in India. It examines social movements, anti-caste uprisings, reformers like Ambedkar and Narayana Guru, and writers like Foucault and Serres to establish a link between the political and social milieu of the idea of nationhood. Going beyond the legal framework of justice, the essays in the volume reassemble the social from popular perception and the margins and challenge Rawlsian and Eurocentric paradigms which have dominated discourse on social injustice. The volume also draws on instances of history as well as contemporary issues, as well as locating them in the context of social and post-colonial theory. An intellectually stimulating yet subaltern engagement with the idea of justice, the volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of social theory, law, modern South Asian history, and social exclusion and discrimination studies.

The volume reproduces the materials of the roundtable debate which examined the enforcement of the prohibition on cartels. The workshop participants, senior representatives of the Commission and the national competition authorities of some EC Member States, renowned international academics and legal practitioners, discussed the economic and legal issues that arise in this particular area, including 1. unearthing cartels, the evidence, 2. the institutional framework and 3. tools of enforcement.

Joan Jonas & Gina Pane Dean Daderko, 2014 Parallel Practices Joan Jonas and Gina Pane consider the works of two pioneers of performance art. Each artist worked multidisciplinarily, producing sculpture, drawings, installations, film, and video, in addition to live actions. Notably, Jonas and Pane have been lauded for their foundational work in performance, a field in which both of these artists blazed trails. Published to accompany an exhibition at the Contemporary Arts Museum Houston, Parallel Practices explores the trajectory of these artists' practices to reveal shared and complementary aspects, as well as to highlight the significant divergences and differences that characterize each artist's work. It includes texts by curator Dean Daderko, Elisabeth Lebovici, and Anne Tronche, and Barbara Clausen.
