Diagnosis and Therapy of Tattoo Complications J., Serup, W.,

Bäumler, 2017-03-10 Tattooing breaches the skin and can therefore cause a variety of complications This book covers the full spectrum of issues clinical practitioners may encounter when treating affected patients Introductory chapters include educational information on methods for tattooing types of tattoos tattoo inks and tattoo ink toxicology The focus is on the diagnosis and classification of tattoo complications In this regard a comprehensive atlas of acute and chronic complications serves as a valuable tool Further chapters summarize available therapies their rationale and indication This includes various medical and surgical treatments with a review of dermatome shaving Lastly tattoo removal by gold standard YAG lasers and the more recent pico second lasers is discussed with the optimal therapeutic outcome in mind Dermatologists plastic surgeons general practitioners laser surgeons and other specialists treating tattoo complications will find this book to be an indispensable resource It also includes information relevant for a broad range of stakeholders in the tattoo business including authorities and regulators

Covered in Ink Beverly Yuen Thompson, 2015-07-24 A small dolphin on the ankle a black line on the lower back a flower on the hip or a child s name on the shoulder blade among the women who make up the twenty percent of all adults in the USA who have tattoos these are by far the most popular choices Tattoos like these are cute small and can be easily hidden and they fit right in with society s preconceived notions about what is gender appropriate for women But what about women who are heavily tattooed Or women who visibly wear imagery like skulls that can be perceived as masculine or ugly when inked on their skin Drawing on autoethnography and extensive interviews with heavily tattooed women Covered in Ink provides insight into the increasingly visible subculture of women with tattoos Author Beverly Thompson visits tattoos parlors talking to female tattoo artists and the women they ink and she attends tattoo conventions and Miss Tattoo pageants where heavily tattooed women congregate to share their mutual love for the art form. Along the way she brings to life women's love of ink, their very personal choices of tattoo art and the meaning tattooing has come to carry in their lives as well as their struggles with gender norms, employment discrimination and family rejection. Thompson finds that despite the stigma and social opposition heavily tattooed women face, many feel empowered by their tattoos and strongly believe they are creating a space for self expression that also presents a positive body image. A riveting and unique study, Covered in Ink, provides important insight into the often unseen world of women and tattooing.

Enough Kate Conner, 2014-08-01
You are beautiful. You are valuable. You are enough. In a book based on her run away blog post, Ten Things I Want to Tell Teenage Girls, which garnered more than 2 million views in two weeks, Kate Conner calls us to action in Enough. We all have teenage girls in our lives who we love, whether it's a sister, friend or daughter. Kate has identified 10 things these girls need to hear today from someone who loves her. Peppered with wit and laced with grace, Kate's list tackles relevant issues like Facebook, emotions, drama, tanning beds, modesty and flirtation. Woven into each chapter is a powerful message of worth that transcends age and will touch the souls of women young and old alike. You are beautiful. You are valuable. You are enough. A former youth worker, wife to a college minister and a young mom in her twenties, Conner stands squarely in generational gap, the perfect place from which to bridge it. Conner offers herself as a translator, helping you to speak your teenager's language and equipping you with a fresh perspective from which to engage your teenage girl, one that may enable her to truly hear your heart and your wisdom for the first time since puberty.

Faking It Cora Carmack, 2013-06-04

Mackenzie Max Miller has a problem. Her parents have arrived in town for a surprise visit and if they see her dyed hair, tattoos and piercings, they just might disown her. Even worse, they're expecting to meet a nice, wholesome boyfriend, not a guy named Mace, who has a neck tattoo and plays in a band. All her lies are about to come crashing down around her, but then she meets Cade. Cade moved to Philadelphia to act and to leave his problems behind in Texas. So far, though, he's kept the problems and had very little opportunity to take the stage. When Max approaches him in a coffee shop with a crazy request to pretend to be her boyfriend, he agrees to play the part. But when Cade plays the role a little too well, they're forced to keep the ruse going. And the more they fake the relationship, the more real it begins to feel. The hot new New Adult title from New York Times bestselling author of Losing It, Cora Carmack.

Homeward Bound Jonathan Shaw, 2018-08-14

Picking up where Jonathan Shaw's critically acclaimed Scab Vendor Confessions of a Tattoo Artist left off, Homeward Bound resumes the story of Cigano, the tattoo man. Cigano continues his full body tattoo work on a young acolyte, Jaco, who eagerly soaks up his tales. Homeward Bound continues charting the amazing course of a life measured in extremes and all the singular people, exotic places and outrageous events that shaped it into a survivor's tale of epic proportions. In its pages, Shaw takes the reader deeper than ever before, not only into the bizarre recesses of his extraordinary mind and incredible adventures, but also into the strange and magical process of memoir writing itself. Homeward Bound is proof positive that truth is indeed stranger than fiction As Shaw's old friend and literary mentor Charles Bukowski once told him most of this book would have to be lived before it could be written In that sense Homeward Bound is much more than a compelling page turning chronicle of a popular working class hero's creative evolution It is a multicolored cinematic modern day Odyssey written in blood ink and tears a kaleidoscopic visionary roadmap to the journey of the human soul

Pedagogies in the Flesh

Sarah Travis,Amelia M. Kraehe,Emily J. Hood,Tyson E. Lewis,2017-09-04 This book presents a collection of vivid theoretically informed descriptions of flashpoints educational moments when the implicit sociocultural knowledge carried in the body becomes a salient feature of experience The flashpoints will ignite critical reflection and dialogue about the formation of the self identity and social inequality on the level of the preconscious body
