Negotiating In Organizations:

Negotiating in Organizations Max H. Bazerman, Roy Lewicki, 1983-08 Hall and Quinn focus attention on an understudied topic the significant relationship between organizations and public policy From national associations to private foundations organizations are the formulators implementors and objects of public policy This volume recognizes the potential for improving public policy through knowledge of organizational theory Negotiating at Work Deborah M. Kolb, Jessica L. Porter, 2015-01-06 Understand the context of negotiations to achieve better results Negotiation has always been at the heart of solving problems at work Yet today when people in organizations are asked to do more with less be responsive 24 7 and manage in rapidly changing environments negotiation is more essential than ever What has been missed in much of the literature of the past 30 years is that negotiations in organizations always take place within a context of organizational culture of prior negotiations of power relationships that dictates which issues are negotiable and by whom When we negotiate for new opportunities or increased flexibility we never do it in a vacuum We challenge the status quo and we build out the path for others to negotiate those issues after us In this way negotiating for ourselves at work can create small wins that can grow into something bigger for ourselves and our organizations Seen in this way negotiation becomes a tool for addressing ineffective practices and outdated assumptions and for creating change Negotiating at Work offers practical advice for managing your own workplace negotiations how to get opportunities promotions flexibility buy in support and credit for your work It does so within the context of organizational dynamics recognizing that to negotiate with someone who has more power adds a level of complexity The is true when we negotiate with our superiors and also true for individuals currently under represented in senior leadership roles whose managers may not recognize certain issues as barriers or obstacles Negotiating at Work is rooted in real life cases of professionals from a wide range of industries and organizations both national and international Strategies to get the other person to the table and engage in creative problem solving even when they are reluctant to do so Tips on how to recognize opportunities to negotiate bolster your confidence prior to the negotiation turn asks into a negotiation and advance negotiations that get stuck A rich examination of research on negotiation conflict management and gender By using these strategies you can negotiate successfully for your job and your career in a larger field you can also alter organizational practices and policies that impact others Built to Win Lawrence Susskind, Hallam Movius, 2009-05-05 Companies that consistently negotiate more valuable agreements in ways that protect key relationships enjoy an important but often overlooked competitive advantage Until now most companies have sought to improve their negotiation outcomes by sending individuals to training workshops But this new groundbreaking book using real world examples from leading companies shows a more powerful and less expensive way to achieve this In Built to Win authors Susskind and Movius argue that negotiation must be a strategic core competency Drawing on their decades of training and consulting work as well as a robust theory of negotiation the authors provide a step by step model for building organizational competence They show why the approach of training and more training is a weak strategy The authors also describe the organizational barriers that so often plague even experienced negotiators and recommend ways of overcoming them Built to Win explains the crucial role that leaders must play in setting goals aligning incentives pinpointing metrics and supporting learning platforms to promote long term success A final chapter provides practical how to tools to help you start your own organizational improvement process This book will be invaluable to CEOs senior level managers HR business leaders human resource professionals sales and purchasing managers and others who negotiate regularly HBR's 10
