Nesting Its A Chick Thing:

Space And Time, Matter And Mind Wolfram Schommers,1994-10-10 In principle the elements of space and time cannot be measured Therefore the following question arises How are reality and space time related to each other In this book it is argued on the basis of many facts that reality is not embedded but projected onto space and time We can never make statements about the actual reality outside basic reality but we can only form pictures of it These are pictures of the same reality on different levels From this point of view the hard objects matter and the products of the mind are similar in character

Nesting Birds of the Coastal Islands John C. Dyes,2013-09-17 Every year more than twenty species of terns gulls and colonial wading birds raise their young on rookery islands all along the Gulf Coast Their breeding and nesting activities go on in the wake of passing oil tankers commercial fishing vessels and pleasure boats of all kinds human traffic that threatens their already circumscribed habitats John C Dyes has spent more than ten years photographing and observing the birds in their rookeries on the Texas Coast and in Nesting Birds of the Coastal Islands he presents a year in the birds life through fine photographs and an evocative and informative text In a month by month account he follows the annual rituals and daily dramas of courtship mating and chick rearing among herons egrets spoonbills cormorants ibises and other birds that migrate and gather in colonies ranging from half a dozen birds to tens of thousands
