The Individual in the Making Edwin Asbury Kirkpatrick,1911 In this volume it is proposed to discuss the development of individual human minds chiefly from the subjective point of view The educator like the mariner needs a chart by which he may guide the child into the most favoring channels and past the most serious dangers that are found in each stage of development from childhood to maturity The author believes that the descriptions and suggestions herein given lead toward the truth The ideas as expressed are not given as final truth for the guidance of psychologists and educators but as a formulation of facts and principles to be corrected and completed by further scientific investigations and tested by practical educational experience It is hoped that the work is sufficiently concrete and specific to be of interest and value to parents and teachers who have not received much training in psychology It will be of most value however to those who have had a good deal of experience with children Preface      Modern Language Instruction in Canada Canadian Committee on Modern Languages,1928      Publications of the American and Canadian Committees on Modern Languages Modern Foreign Language Study,1928      Extensive Reading Activities for Teaching Language Julian Bamford,Richard R.

Day,2004-08-16 This lively collection of over 100 classroom activities allows teachers to exploit fully the language learning potential of extensive reading The activities contributed by teachers who have used them successfully in classrooms all over the world introduce extensive reading to students and link it with the rest of the language curriculum Here is a wealth of ideas for encouraging students to read and for using students reading experiences for further language practice and learning These creative and enjoyable speaking listening role play reading writing and vocabulary activities are suitable for students of all ages and levels Each activity is clearly explained together with a personal note from its author This is a handbook for teachers of general language courses or grammar listening speaking writing or reading courses It is written for teachers both non native and native speaking and for teachers both novice and experienced It will also be of interest to teacher educators      Thinking in the EFL Class Tessa Woodward,2011 Thinking in the EFL Class progresses to the fundamentals of building a positive class atmosphere for communicating well and in English Thinking in the EFL Class offers over 30 well thought out realistic tips for teachers and over 85 practical easy to use activities for language classes These tips and activities encourage flexibility fun creativity and rigour in teacher and student thinking They involve minimal preparation and a wide range of interesting topics Most of the activities are multi level and adaptable from elementary to advanced students Many integrate the skills of listening speaking reading and or writing Thinking in the EFL Class is extremely valuable in helping teachers stay interested in their work and in helping students cope with the demands of learning a language and living in a restless changeable world
