takeoff to bird strike to touchdown to rescue seen through the eyes and felt in the souls of those on board the fateful flight. Revealing many new and compelling details, Miracle on the Hudson dramatically evokes the explosion and smell of burning flesh as both engines were destroyed by geese, the violent landing on the river that felt like a huge car wreck, the gridlock in the aisles as the plane filled swiftly with freezing water, and the thrill of the passengers' rescue from the wings and from rafts. All of it recalled by the cross section of America on board: Jay McDonald, a thirty-nine-year-old software developer who had survived brain tumor surgery just two years earlier and now faced the unimaginable; Tracey Wolsko, a nervous flier suddenly became other people's rock; "Just pray, it's going to be all right," Jim Whitaker, a construction executive, reassured a nervous mother of two young children on board, only later admitting he was pathologically lying the whole time. As the plane started sinking, Lucille Palmer, eighty-five, told her daughter to save herself: "Just leave me." Featuring much more than what the media reported—moments of chaos in addition to stoicism and common sense, and the fortuitous mistakes and quick instincts that saved lives that otherwise would have been lost—Miracle on the Hudson is the chronicle of one of the most phenomenal feel-good stories of recent years, one that could have been a nightmare and instead became a stirring narrative of heroism and hope for our times.
