Miracles Of St John Capistran:

Saint John Capistran Vincent Fitzgerald, 1911      The Miracles of St. John Capistran Stanko Andrić, 2000 The accounts provide an unparalleled insight into the history of everyday life and into the various hardships illnesses hopes dreams and anxieties during the late medieval and early modern period BOOK JACKET      Miracles Patrick J. Hayes, 2016-01-11 Miracles give hope to the hopeless and exemplify the intersection of the divine and the mundane They have shaped world history and continue to influence us through their presence in films television novels and popular culture This encyclopedia provides a unique resource on the philosophical historical religious and cross cultural conceptions of miracles that cut across denominational lines Multidisciplinary in approach this informative yet entertaining encyclopedia covers major aspects of miraculous phenomena through more than 150 alphabetically arranged entries that document how humanity's belief in religious miracles over multiple places periods and faiths have affected society even changed the course of history Written for high school students and general readers the coverage enables readers to learn about different civilizations and cultures the controversies surrounding different beliefs and the often uncomfortable engagement of religion with science This single volume book provides a one stop ready reference that addresses a broad variety of subject matter on miraculous phenomena and guides further investigations into the subject Helpful illustrations and lucid explanations of the ancillary concepts associated with miraculous phenomena make learning about this topic more engaging Readers will be able to link the doctrinal concepts such as grace or prayer with the descriptions of miraculous events especially those associated with saints or holy objects The examination of the controversial aspects of different belief systems along with the book's balanced coverage of the interpretation of miracles will encourage students to weigh different explanations thus fostering the development of their critical thinking skills      A Companion to Medieval Miracle Collections , 2021-09-06 Miracle accounts provide a window into the views and conceptions of the laity the uneducated women and even children whose voices are mostly missing from other types of sources They are not however simple to use This volume offers a methodological insight into the medieval world of the miraculous Consisting of 15 cutting edge articles by leading scholars in the field it provides versatile approaches to the origins methods and recording techniques of various types of miracle narratives It offers fascinating case studies from across Europe which show how miracle accounts can be used as a source for various topics such as lived religion healing protection and family and gender Contributors are Nicole Archambeau Leigh Ann Craig Ildik Csepregi Jussi Hanska Emilia Jamroziak Sari Katajala Peltomaa Jenni Kuuliala Iona McCleery Jyrki Nissi Roberto Paciocco Donald S Prudlo Marika R s nen Jonas Van Mulder and Louise Elizabeth Wilson      Ransom Slavery along the Ottoman Borders Geza David, 2007-08-31 Notwithstanding the spectacular upswing in the research there are areas of Ottoman slavery that have still not received the attention they deserve This volume intends to take a step towards bridging this gap The twelve studies it contains are organised around connected themes the hunt for the trade in and the treatment of captives in the Balkans and in Central Europe The area under scrutiny is focussed on Hungary and some other border regions extending from the Crimea to Malta It offers both an analytic and synthetic approach based on a great deal of so far unpublished Ottoman and European archival material It not only examines Christian slavery in the Ottoman Empire but also provides greater insight into the tribulations of Ottoman slaves in the Christian world and sheds light on the devastating effect of captive related transactions on trade and sometimes on the financial position of whole communities     Lives of the saints and blessed of the three orders of saint Francis, tr. from the 'Aureole seraphique'. Léon de Clary,1886

Communities of Devotion Maria Crăciun,Elaine Fulton,2011 Between the later middle ages and the eighteenth century religious orders were in the vanguard of reform movements within the Christian church Recent scholarship on medieval Europe has emphasised how mendicants exercised a significant influence on the religiosity of the laity by actually shaping their spirituality and piety In a similar way for the early modern period religious orders have been credited with disseminating Tridentine reform training new clergy gaining new converts and bringing those who had strayed back into the fold Much about this process however still remains unknown particularly with regards to east central Europe Exploring the complex relationship between western monasticism and lay society in east central Europe across a broad chronological timeframe this collection provides a re examination of the level and nature of interaction between members of religious orders and the communities around them That the studies in this collection are all located in east central Europe Transylvania Hungary Austria and Bohemia fulfils a second key aim of the volume the examination of clerical and lay piety in a region of Europe almost entirely ignored by western scholarship As such the volume provides an important addition to current scholarship showcasing fresh research on a subject and region on which little has been published in English The volume further contributes to the reintegration of eastern and western European history expanding the existing parameters of scholarly discourse into late medieval and early modern religious practice and piety     Gender, Miracles, and Daily Life Sari Katajala-Peltomaa,2009 Interaction with the saints was central to the everyday life of medieval Christians The process of praying to a heavenly intercessor not only involved private devotion but was also intrinsically connected with society at large It required the individual to communicate and negotiate both with the saint and within a group of devotees thereby exposing social processes such as community dynamics and the construction of gender Considering these issues and others Gender Miracles and Daily Life focuses on the depositions of the canonization processes of Thomas Cantilupe 1307 and Nicholas of Tolentino 1325 It explores how ordinary laypeople understood the daily responsibilities that determined their relationship to the saints and articulates how their shared narratives contributed to the rituals which surrounded a miracle This material has been little explored by scholars yet offers a vivid and colourful insight into the world of men and women in the fourteenth century     The Ministry of St. John Baptist Henry James Coleridge,1874     Wiseman Review ,1887     The Dublin Review Nicholas Patrick Wiseman,1891     The Downside Review ,1911     The Dublin Review ,1887     The Month and The Dublin Review

Catholic Review ,1875    The Month ,1875    The Development of Literate Mentalities in East Central Europe
Anna Adamska,Marco Mostert,2004 Compared with most of Continental Europe North of the Alps the introduction of writing in East Central Europe Bohemia Poland and Hungary took place with a considerable delay Much is known about East Central European uses of writing although only a fragment of this knowledge is known outside the region Gathered by historians palaeographers and codicologists diplomats art historians literary historians and others this knowledge has hardly ever been studied in the light of recent discussions on medieval literacy and communication Work done in the Czech Polish and Hungarian traditions of scholarship has never been subjected to a comparative analysis Furthermore the question of the relation between writing and other forms of communication in the region remains largely unexplored The volume serves a double purpose For the first time a collection of contributions on medieval literacy in East Central Europe is put before the forum of international scholarship It is also hoped to further discussions of modes of communication literate behaviour and mentalities among scholars working in the region    Catalogue of the Pictures and Sculptures in the Royal Museum of Antwerp Koninklijk Museum voor Schone Kunsten (Belgium),1894    Franciscan Studies ,1928 Issues for 1941 44 include the Report of the 23rd 26th annual meeting of the Franciscan Educational Conference    The History of Franciscan Preaching and of Franciscan Preachers (1209-1927) Anscar Zawart,1928    The Life of S.
