Mirror For Simple Souls:

The Mirror of Simple Souls Marguerite Porete,1993 We know very little about Marguerite Porete only that she was a beguine from Hainaut who was burned at the stake as a relapsed heretic in 1310 She might have been a solitary itinerant beguine who expounded her teachings to interested listeners    The Mirror of Simple Souls Marguerite Porete,2022-12-19 Dive into the profound depths of Christian spiritualism with The Mirror of Simple Souls an early 14th century work by Marguerite Porete It s exploration of Oneness with God though influential at the time of its writing was denounced by Church authorities as heretical and banned for its supposed connection to Antinomianism Since it s attribution to Porete in the 1940 s The Mirror of Simple Souls has come to be regarded as among the most important works of medieval Christian mysticism    A Mirror for Simple Souls Charles Crawford,1981    The Mirror of Simple Souls Marguerite Porete,2019-10-25 2019 Reprint of 1927 Edition Full facsimile of the original edition not reproduced with Optical Recognition software The Mirror of Simple Souls is an early 14th century work of Christian mysticism by Marguerite Porete dealing with the workings of Divine Love Written originally in Old French at a time when Latin was the prescribed language for religious literature it explores in poetry and prose the seven stages of annihilation the Soul goes through on its path to Oneness with God through Love Porete s vision of the Soul is of ecstatic union with God moving in a state of perpetual joy and peace Porete argues that the Soul in such a sublime state is above the demands of ordinary virtue not because virtue is not needed but because in its state of union with God virtue becomes automatic As God can do no evil and cannot sin the exalted Annihilated soul in perfect union with Him no longer is capable of evil or sin    A Mirror for Simple Souls Marguerite Porete,Charles Crawford,1990    The Mirror of Simple Souls Marguerite Porete,2020-04-03 2020 Reprint of the 1927 Edition Full facsimile of the original edition and not reproduced with Optical Recognition Software The Mirror of Simple Souls is an early 14th century work of Christian mysticism by Marguerite Porete dealing with the workings of Divine Love Written originally in Old French at a time when Latin was the prescribed language for religious literature it explores in poetry and prose the seven stages of annihilation the Soul goes through on its path to Oneness with God through Love Enormously popular when written it fell afoul of the Church authorities who detecting elements of the antinomian Heresy of the Free Spirit in its vision denounced it as full of errors and heresies burnt existing copies banned its circulation and tried and executed Porete herself In spite of this the work was translated into several different languages around Europe including English albeit not with Porete s name attached In fact it was not identified as being by Porete at all until 1946 Since then it has been seen increasingly as one of the seminal works of Medieval spiritual literature and Porete alongside Mechthild of Magdeburg and Hadewijch can be seen as an exemplar of the love mysticism of the Beguine movement    Nobility and Annihilation in Marguerite Porete's Mirror of Simple Souls Joanne Maguire Robinson,2001-05-16 An in depth examination of the work of this important medieval woman mystic    The Mirror of Simple Souls Clare Kirchberger,1927    A Companion to

Marguerite Porete and The Mirror of Simple Souls Robert Stauffer, Wendy R. Terry, 2017-04-11 Even with growing popularity in the United States there existed no English language scholarly introduction to Marguerite Porete or her sole surviving work Mirror of Simple Souls until now. The study of Marguerite and her work touches on so many disciplines from religious and secular histories to theological and literary readings of her book that the scholarship had often been lost in the divides between the disciplines. Our contributors are chosen from both sides of the Atlantic and from an array of disciplines in order to bridge this geographical and linguistic divide. The interdisciplinary nature of the interest in Marguerite and the Mirror and the implications her book has on medieval scholarship make a collection such as this companion ideal.

At that time the author of the manuscript was unknown. It has since been attributed to Marguerite Porete a French mystic. She was burnt at the stake for heresy in Paris in 1310 after a lengthy trial after refusing to remove her book from circulation or recant her views. The book is cited as one the primary texts of the medieval Heresy of the Free Spirit. Porete's life is recorded only in accounts of her trial for heresy at which she was condemned to be burnt at the stake. She is associated with the Beguine movement and was therefore able to travel fairly freely. Until 1946 it was not even known that she was the writer of the Mirror which had been published anonymously since her death. The title of Porete's book refers to the simple soul which is united with God and has no will other than His. Porete's vision of the Soul is of ecstatic union with God moving in a state of perpetual joy and peace. Porete argues that the Soul in such a sublime state is above the demands of ordinary virtue not because virtue is not needed but because in its state of union with God virtue becomes automatic. As God can do no evil and cannot sin the exalted Annihilated soul in perfect union with Him no longer is capable of evil or sin.
