Baron Byron,1991      Miscellaneous Prose Works, Vol. 2 of 3 Edward Bulwer Lord Lytton,2015-06-15 Excerpt from Miscellaneous Prose Works Vol 2 of 3 Authors seen in the body are expected to be exactly like what the readers of their books choose to imagine them And when they differ from such visionary type they are regarded with an indignation akin to that which is felt for an impostor If a philosopher profound as Aristotle present himself to the eye as Aristotle is said to have done sprucely dressed as a youthful gallant or a poet charming as Goldsmith contrast the beauty and grace of his verse by homely features and a clownish address resentful admirers pass at once into the ranks of malignant critics Out of this kind of disappointment has arisen a very popular notion that authors are altogether insincere deceivers and that their books convey no likeness of their real characters as men But if the personal appearance of an author disappoint the spectator it does not necessarily follow that he is an impostor nay he would perhaps be more justly exposed to that charge if instead of disappointing he had realized the popular expectation About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands

These allowances made there however remains to the volumes before us much to instruct the student in his survey of the men and the times of which they treat M Duval confesses in his Preface the indignation With which he regards the numerous
