Mexico Ramon Ruiz, 2010-08-24 Explicitly focusing on the malaise of underdevelopment that has shaped the country since the Spanish conquest Ramon Eduardo Ruiz offers a panoramic interpretation of Mexican history and culture from the pre Hispanic and colonial eras through the twentieth century Drawing on economics psychology literature film and history he reveals how development processes have fostered glaring inequalities uncovers the fundamental role of race and class in perpetuating poverty and sheds new light on the contemporary Mexican reality Throughout Ruiz traces a legacy of dependency on outsiders and considers the weighty role the United States has played starting with an unjust war that cost Mexico half its territory Based on Ruiz's decades of research and travel in Mexico this penetrating work helps us better understand where the country has come why it is where it is today and where it might go in the future Italian National Cinema, 1896-1996 Pierre Sorlin, 1996 First Published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company

The Changing Face of Corruption in the Asia Pacific Chris Rowley, Marie dela Rama, 2017-05-03 The Changing Face of Corruption in the Asia Pacific Current Perspectives and Future Challenges is a contemporary analysis of corruption in the Asia Pacific region Bringing academicians and practitioners together contributors to this book discuss the current perspectives of corruption's challenges in both theory and practice and what the future challenges will be in addressing corruption's proliferation in the region Includes viewpoints from both practitioners and academic contributors on corruption in the Asia Pacific region Offers a strong theoretical background together with the practical experience of contributors Explores what the future challenges will be in addressing corruption's proliferation in the region Aimed at both the academic and professional audience Power and the People Eleonore C. M. Breuning, Dr. Jill Lewis, Gareth Pritchard, 2005 This book covers various aspects of the social history of politics on both sides of the Iron Curtain in the period 1945 to 1956 The contributors come from a range of countries Austria Germany Hungary Slovakia and the United Kingdom and comprise a mixture of established historians and younger scholars engaged in pioneering research The individual chapters are organised into four sections dealing with workers ethnic and linguistic minorities youth and women In order to enhance the comparative character of the volume the four chapters contained in each section consider the position of these social groups in respectively West Germany East Germany Austria and either Czechoslovakia or Hungary Major themes include the absence of popular revolutions in the aftermath of World War Two the re imposition of social control by post war elites the attempt to restore pre war gender relations and the failure of Communist parties to win popular support The chosen time frame saw most of the decisive developments which set the pattern for the remaining Cold War period and is therefore of key importance for any student of this topic French Intellectuals Against the Left Michael Scott Christofferson, 2004-06-01 In the latter half of the 1970s the French intellectual Left denounced communism Marxism and revolutionary politics through a critique of left wing totalitarianism that paved the way for today's postmodern liberal and moderate republican political options Contrary to the dominant understanding of the critique of totalitarianism as an abrupt rupture induced by Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn's The Gulag Archipelago Christofferson argues that French anti totalitarianism was the culmination of direct democratic critiques of communism and revisions of the revolutionary project after 1956 The author's focus on the direct democratic politics of French intellectuals offers an important alternative to recent histories that seek to explain the course of French intellectual politics by France's apparent lack of a liberal tradition Threatened Masculinity from British Fiction to Cold War German Cinema Joseph Willis,2019-05-30 The impact of the Cold War on German male identities can be seen in the nation's cinematic search for a masculine paradigm that rejected the fate centered value system of its National Socialist past while also recognizing that German males once again had become victims of fate and fatalism but now within the value system of the Soviet and American hegemonies that determined the fate of Cold War Germany and Central Europe This monograph is the first to demonstrate that this Cold War cinematic search sought out a meaningful masculine paradigm through film adaptations of late Victorian and Edwardian male writers who likewise sought a means of self determination within a hegemonic structure that often left few opportunities for personal agency In contrast to the scholarly practice of exploring categories of modern masculinity such as Victorian imperialist manliness or German Cold War male identity as distinct from each other this monograph offers an important comparative corrective that brings forward an extremely influential century long trajectory of threatened masculinity For German Cold War masculinity lessons were to be learned from history namely from late Victorian and Edwardian models of manliness Cold War Germans like the Victorians before them had to confront the unknowns of a new world without fear or hesitation In a Cold War mentality where nuclear technology and geographic distance had trumped face to face confrontation between East and West Cold War German masculinity sought alternatives to the insanity of mutual nuclear destruction by choosing not just to confront threats but to resolve threats directly through personal agency and self determination A Bibliography of Chemistry for the Year 1887 Alfred Tuckerman,Charles Karsner Mills,Cleveland Abbe,Frank Weiss Traphagen,Henry Carrington Bolton,Joseph Addison Rogers,William Crawford Winlock,1893 [A five years' course of Bible and Prayer book teaching. Ceremonies Of The Jubilee In the still unpublished diary<sup>1</sup> of Francesco Mucanzio papal master of ceremonies at the close of the sixteenth century we find that distinguished rubrician in December 1574 discussing at some length the ritual to be used in the unwalling of the Holy Door at the forthcoming celebration of the Jubilee He tells us that as the time for the ceremony drew near he went to his Holiness Pope Gregory XIII and submitted to him a memorandum concerning the preparations to be made and the things to be then observed It appears however that his colleague in the office of master of ceremonies also went to the Pope with a similar programme which he declared to be that which had been followed by Julius III in the year 1550 It differed very little from mine says Mucanzio except in the versicles and responses Those which I had set down were taken from an ancient roll a quodam rotulo antiquo used in the time of Clement VII and of these versicles there was probably no accurate copy forthcoming in 1550 on account of the pillage and disasters to which the city had been subjected he refers presumably to the sack of Rome in 1527 hence they had been somewhat altered My opinion was that out of the two sets which we had before us a third more appropriate than either might have been drawn up but when the matter was proposed in the Congregation of Cardinals appointed for the revision of ceremonies they decided that as regards the versicles 1The copy here quoted is contained in MS Addit 26811 at the British Museum and prayers the precedent of Julius III s time should be adhered to in every particular The fact is adds Mucanzio we have nothing prescribed about this matter in the Book of Ceremonies 1 and on this ac      Metaphysics, Or, The Science of Perception John Miller, 1875
