Miranda At War:

Miranda's War Howard Foster, 2026-01-20 Miranda Dalton has everything she could have dreamed of But heroines often find that everything isn't enough and Miranda is no exception in this witty and biting satire Brilliant and beautiful Miranda Dalton is at a crossroads Living in the elite enclave of Lincoln Massachusetts in a beautiful old Victorian with her old money professor husband and her two perfect boys free to indulge her twin passions for collecting fine art though she's not averse to the occasional excellent forgery and finer wine she's made it by anyone's definition She's even managed to keep a dark past suppressed But despite Miranda's lush life she's not happy Finally being accepted to Lincoln's Conservation Commission couldn't come at a better time She keenly detects that liberal Lincoln is hiding something fear And that fear she understands is nothing but thinly veiled hypocrisy Little by little that old dark side comes to the fore as Miranda hatches a game plan determined to turn the finer points of zoning law into a struggle for Lincoln's very soul Facing her true nature for the first time she's determined to make Lincoln do the same In this biting satire of upper to rust liberal culture Miranda harnesses the power of boycotts and back room deals secret meetings with the governor a genius PR campaign and an eye popping amount of money to turn her Conservation Commission into a mirror one that shows picture perfect Lincoln for what it really is But does Miranda know that she herself is being revealed too Will her faithful family decide that this is finally too much Does Miranda even care
