Literary Awards Julian Harrington, AI, 2025-05-06 Literary Awards examines the significant role of international literary prizes as cultural gatekeepers influencing global literary trends and shaping perceptions of good literature These awards including the Nobel Prize in Literature the Booker Prize and the Prix Goncourt often dictate the flow of cultural capital and impact literary canons The book reveals how factors beyond pure artistic merit such as political considerations and market forces affect these accolades Did you know that these awards can act as tools of cultural diplomacy influencing international relations through literature The book offers a historical overview tracing the evolution of literary prizes from national systems to global phenomena It analyzes how post colonialism globalization and the rise of a global literary market have shaped these awards By examining specific case studies and incorporating interviews with authors and publishers Literary Awards argues that these prizes while powerful are not neutral arbiters of literary quality The book progresses from introducing key concepts like cultural capital to analyzing specific awards and discussing ethical implications providing a comprehensive analysis of the literary awards landscape

Essays that Changed Australia Esther Anatolitis, 2024-11-12 Since the 1940s Meanjin essays have set the national cultural agenda Arthur Phillips idea of cultural cringe has become a household word instantly conveying Australians sense of place in the world while expressing our frustrations and our ambitions yet very few of us know it came from an essay first published in Meanjin Over half a century later Chelsea Watego s 2021 Always bet on Black power roars with the fire of a manifesto Hilary Charlesworth s 1992 A law of one s own challenges Australia s legal system with a formidable feminist ethic Tim Rowse s 1978 Heaven and a Hills Hoist passionately defends suburbia David Yencken s 1988 Creative City sparks a global urban planning movement with artists at the centre This anthology brings together twenty impactful Meanjin essays for the first time An introduction by editor Esther Anatolitis offers critical context and scrutiny illustrating how profoundly Meanjin essays have changed Australia

Young People in a Digitalised World Europarat, 2018 Youth participation in the digitalised world is nowadays a topic of high interest in the public sphere The authors of this publication aim to bring new perspectives and varied visions to the key questions of understanding how young people interact with all the opportunities the digital space has to offer and how they can use this space for causes relevant not only for themselves but also for the democratisation of the societies in which they live By doing so the authors strive to build knowledge on this topic illustrating how the digitalisation of contemporary European societies simultaneously offers significant opportunities and poses considerable challenges Publisher s description
