Million Heirs:

Reparations for Victims of Genocide, War Crimes and Crimes against Humanity Carla Ferstman, Mariana Goetz, Alan Stephens, 2009-04-24 This book provides detailed analyses of systems that have been established to provide reparations to victims of genocide crimes against humanity and war crimes and the way in which these systems have worked and are working in practice Many of these systems are described and assessed for the first time in an academic publication The publication draws upon a groundbreaking Conference organised by the Clemens Nathan Research Centre CNRC and REDRESS at the Peace Palace in The Hague with the support of the Dutch Carnegie Foundation Both CNRC and REDRESS had become very concerned about the extreme difficulty encountered by most victims of serious international crimes in attempting to access effective and enforceable remedies and reparation for harm suffered In discussions between the Conference organisers and Judges and officials of the International Criminal Court it became ever more apparent that there was a great need for frank and open exchanges on the question of effective reparation between the representatives of victims of NGOs and IGOs and other experts It was clear to all that the many current initiatives of governments and regional and international institutions to afford reparations to victims of genocide crimes against humanity and war crimes could benefit greatly by taking into full account the wide and varied practice that had been built up over several decades In particular the Hague Conference sought to consider in detail the long experience of the Conference on Jewish Material Claims against Germany the Claims Conference in respect of Holocaust restitution programmes as well as the practice of truth commissions arbitral proceedings and a variety of national processes to identify common trends best practices and lessons This book thus explores the actions of governments as well as of national and international courts and commissions in applying processing implementing and enforcing a variety of reparations schemes and awards Crucially it considers the entire complex of issues from the perspective of the beneficiaries survivors and their communities and from the perspective of the policy makers and implementers tasked with resolving technical and procedural challenges in bringing to fruition adequate effective and meaningful reparations in the context of mass victimisation

Reparations in Domestic and International Mass Claims Processes Jason S. Palmer, 2023-09-06 Mass claims have historically allowed victims of wrongdoing on an extensive scale to be compensated for losses suffered This insightful book surveys and evaluates both domestic and international mass claims processes delineating their successes and failures in providing this compensation newspaper poems are inherently paratextual The paratextual situation of many newspaper poems their links to surrounding textual items and discourses their editorialisation through circulation the way poems were altered from newspaper to newspaper and their association and disassociation with certain celebrity bylines editors and newspaper titles enabled contemporaneous poetic value and taste that in the mid to late nineteenth century were not only sentimental Romantic and or genteel In addition to these important categories for determining a good and bad poem poetic taste and value were determined Bonifacio argues via arbitrary consequences of circulation paratextualisation typesetter error and editorial convenience
