Mimar Architecture In Development No 42:

Mimar ,1982 Descendants Abdel-moniem El-Shorbagy,2020-06-26 Hassan Fathy s 1900 1989 ideas and philosophy opened opportunities and became a source of inspiration for architects to recognize and appreciate their traditional architecture The response to Fathy s approach from architects in the Developing World differed from that of Western architects When Fathy s architecture began to be widely known from the 1970s onward these architects were influenced by his works not only because of their links to the vernacular but also because of their associations with Islamic architecture The common response of these architects to Fathy s architecture was that they regarded his buildings as prototypes for the contemporary Islamic architecture of the Middle East as his traditional forms and techniques epitomize their national and regional features On the other hand the response of Western architects to Fathy s architecture and ideas varied While some architects admired the new possibilities of building domes and vaults with a primitive material such as mud others were inspired by Fathy s philosophy and his humanistic approach Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals. 2d Ed., Rev. and Enl Avery Library,1992 Historical Dictionary of Saudi Arabia J.E. Peterson,2020-03-06 The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia now has been under the spotlight of Western curiosity for more than 80 years More than 15% of the world s total oil reserves lie underneath Saudi Arabia and in the early 1990s the kingdom became the world s largest crude oil producer Not surprisingly a world highly dependent on oil regards the desert kingdom as an area of intense strategic concern as reflected in the coalition of forces assembled on Saudi soil to oust Iraq from Kuwait in 1991 Also it played a major role in the invasion of Saddam Husayn s Iraq in 2003 and shares concern with the West over Iran s nuclear intentions throughout the 21st century This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Saudi Arabia contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1 000 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Saudi Arabia The Muslim World Book Review ,1992 Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals, 1992 Avery Library,1993 Index of Islamic Literature ,1992 Architectural Regionalism Vincent B. Canizaro,2012-03-20 In this rapidly globalizing world any investigation of architecture inevitably leads to considerations of regionalism But despite its omnipresence in contemporary practice and theory architectural regionalism remains a fluid concept its historical development and current influence largely undocumented This comprehensive reader brings together over 40 key essays illustrating the full range of ideas embodied by the term Authored by important critics historians and architects such as Kenneth Frampton Lewis Mumford Sigfried Giedion and Alan Colquhoun Architectural Regionalism represents the history of regionalist thinking in architecture from the early twentieth century to today The Tropical Asian House Robert Powell,1998 The Tropical Asian House explores how cultural influences tradition religion technology and the forces of globalization fuse together to produce a contemporary tropical architecture Conversion of the Military Base to a Campus

Case Study Brian Charles Jennett, 2000 Architecture Series: Bibliography, 1990 Mimar, 1992 Vernacular Architecture Newsletter, 1991 The International Directory Of Architecture And Design Christopher Curtis, Samia Ammar, 1992 The Guru Abdel-moniem El-Shorbagy, 2019-02-23 Hassan Fathy returned from Athens to live in Cairo in 1962 He was thoroughly depressed at the thought of having to live among the noisy crowded streets of modern Cairo However he lived in a flat in the Aly Labib house a Mamluk house built in the 18th century and was known as Beit Al Fan home of the art Not surprisingly Fathy's belief in the value of tradition was still strong His primary concern was to develop his mud brick style and the self help building approach which he had been experimenting with since the mid 1940s In the period between 1962 and 1967 Fathy experienced misfortune in realizing many projects However since 1967 until his death in 1989 Fathy traditional approach began to be appreciated and he was able to design and build many different residential projects as well as commercial ones In the 1980 Fathy's effort was acknowledged by many awards including the United Nations Peace Medal the Aga Khan Award for Architecture and the first Gold Medal of the Union Internationale des Architectes In 1989 Fathy died in his 18th century Mamluk house Cairo Courtyard Architecture Florita Z. Louis de Malave, 1990 OHI, 1996 Luis Barragán: the Quiet Revolution Federica Zanco, 2001 Luis Barragan was one of the most extraordinary figures in international architecture between the 1930s and the 1970s His work offers a unique interpretation of international modern architecture from the perspective of the Mexican landscape Union List of Artist Names: E-K, 1994 Region Simon Richards, Robert Schmidt III, Cagri Sanliturk, Falli Palaiologou, 2023-07-28 This book explores how the concept of region has evolved over time and shaped architectural culture and practice It questions what the words region and regional mean for architecture cities and landscapes past and present and speculates on the forms they might take in the future Region is explored in many thematic guises as a real geographical site of evolving socio economic activity as a mythical locus of enduring value as a gatekeeper of indigenous crafts and vernacular techniques as a site of architectural and artistic imagination as a repository of contested conflicted and mobile identities The contributing chapters take these themes from the theoretical and literary page through to architectural and urban practice and from the scale of the domestic hearth through to the ocean archipelago and international law enriching the long standing trope of viewing architectural regionalism purely as a matter of style Curated into four key thematic areas Theorised Regions Contested Regions Heritage Regions and Future Regions the book incorporates the values concerns and approaches of a truly diverse international community of scholars curators and practitioners as well as the design work of international students tasked to explore what region means to them
