Mind Cage:

The Mind Cage A. E. Van Vogt, 1992-05-01 David Marin risks his reputation and government career when he makes a plea for Wade Trask a brilliant scientist condemned to be executed for sedition Trask is experimenting with transplanting the mind and nervous system of one animal into the body of another When Marin goes to see him the nearly mad scientist suddenly blasts Marin with his gas gun and now Marin s identity is encased in Trask s body

The Cage-Busting Teacher Frederick M. Hess, 2015-04-01 The Cage Busting Teacher adopts the logic of Cage Busting Leadership and applies it to the unique challenges and opportunities of classroom teachers Detailed accessible and thoroughly engaging it uncovers the many ways in which teachers can break out of familiar constraints in order to influence school and classroom practice education policy and school reform Cage busting is concrete precise and practical writes Frederick M Hess This invaluable book helps teachers understand why and how to revisit their assumptions and enables them to have greater impacts upon their schools and beyond Based on interviews with hundreds of teachers teacher advocates union leaders and others Hess identifies the challenges teachers face seeks concrete and workable solutions and offers recommendations to put those solutions in place A uniquely practical and inspiring book The Cage Busting Teacher is for educators who want to shape the schools and systems in which they work

Metaphors of Confinement Monika Fludernik, 2019-08-13 Metaphors of Confinement The Prison in Fact Fiction and Fantasy offers a historical survey of imaginings of the prison as expressed in carceral metaphors in a range of texts about imprisonment from Antiquity to the present as well as non penal situations described as confining or restrictive These imaginings coalesce into a carceral imaginary that determines the way we think about prisons just as social debates about punishment and criminals feed into the way carceral imaginary develops over time Examining not only English language prose fiction but also poetry and drama from the Middle Ages to postcolonial particularly African literature the book juxtaposes literary and non literary contexts and contrasts fictional and nonfictional representations of imprisonment and discussions about the prison as institution and experiential reality It comments on present day trends of punitivity and foregrounds the ethical dimensions of penal punishment The main argument concerns the continuity of carceral metaphors through the centuries despite historical developments that included major shifts in policy such as the invention of the penitentiary The study looks at selected carceral metaphors often from two complementary perspectives such as the home as prison or the prison as home or the factory as prison and the prison as factory The case studies present particularly relevant genres and texts that employ these metaphors often from a historical perspective that analyses development through different periods

Flesh is Weak, Plants Ascend Jose Tenggren, 2006-01-22 having finished a day s work slowly walked home her legs feeling like lead There was too much work today Her boss was an oddball he was always watching the company and she didn t dare leave even after get off work hours Recently the boss implemented a diligent overtime system if you didn t work at least 10 days of diligent overtime each month a portion of your salary would be deducted if you did you d get your full salary essentially making employees work overtime for free Every day after get off work the boss would deliberately stay late forcing everyone to watch him until he left before they went home No one did any real work they were just wasting time The boss had a car and could easily get home while everyone else had to wait for the bus or worse take a taxi which cost even more Great Thoughts from Master Minds ,1910 The Mind Cage Alfred Elton Van Vogt,1963
