of wisdom found in the ancient Egyptian mysteries She then follows the tradition to modern times through C G Jung's ideas on the nature of the psyche She also discovers that the claims of astrology are entirely compatible with new cosmological thinking as envisioned by post modern physics and chaos theory In the second part of the book she proposes that the mathematical basis of astrology and the components of astrological charts are both archetypal and cosmic in scope She argues that the twelve astrological archetypes make up a single cosmic mind whose patterns are imprinted on all our individual minds Finally she exemplifies this radical approach to astrology through an interpretation of the chart of William Blake
