Divine Psychology Kate Simmons,1918 Light from Light Judith L. Corey,2016-12-01 Cosmology and theology share a long held relationship with one another explaining as they do the constitution of the world and the interaction of forces The author explores the history of this relationship from ancient pre scientific and theological explanations through to contemporary science and philosophy In this history a particular problem is highlighted by the author the prevalence of dualism from Aristotelian philosophy to modern mechanistic conceptions many of these accounts presume a sharp absolute dichotomy between matter and spirit and the material world and the divine Increasingly dualistic conceptions are called into question by contemporary science theology and philosophy The author argues that a particular trajectory stemming from Greek Heraclitian and Platonic philosophy to non orthodox and early Christian theologies provides a fruitful resource for contemporary discussions This is the Logos theology and its attendant language of light The author brings this tradition into dialogue with contemporary science and theology to construct an integrative account

The Enduring Importance of Leo Strauss Laurence Lampert, 2013-08-14 The Enduring Importance of Leo Strauss takes on the crucial task of separating what is truly important in the work of Leo Strauss from the ephemeral politics associated with his school Laurence Lampert focuses on exotericism the use of artful rhetoric to simultaneously communicate a socially responsible message to the public at large and a more radical message of philosophic truth to a smaller more intellectually inclined audience Largely forgotten after the Enlightenment exotericism he shows deeply informed Strauss both as a reader and as a philosophic writer indeed Lampert argues Strauss learned from the finest practitioners of exoteric writing how to become one himself Examining some of Strauss's most important books and essays through this exoteric lens Lampert reevaluates not only Strauss but the philosophers from Plato to Halevi to Nietzsche with whom Strauss most deeply engaged Ultimately Lampert shows that Strauss's famous distinction between ancient and modern thinkers is primarily rhetorical one of the great examples of Strauss's exoteric craft Celebrating Strauss's achievements while recognizing one main shortcoming unlike Nietzsche he failed to appreciate the ramifications of modern natural science for philosophy and its public presentation Lampert illuminates Strauss as having even greater philosophic importance than we have thought before

The Corpus Hermeticum Hermes, 2016-01-23 The Corpus Hermeticum The Corpus Hermeticum are the core documents of the Hermetic tradition Hermes An Introduction to the Corpus Hermeticum by John Michael Greer The Hermetica are Egyptian Greek wisdom texts from the 2nd and 3rd centuries AD which are mostly presented as dialogues in which a teacher generally identified as Hermes Trismegistus thrice greatest Hermes enlightens a disciple The texts form the basis of Hermeticism They discuss the divine the cosmos mind and nature Some touch upon alchemy astrology and related concepts The fifteen tractates of the Corpus Hermeticum along with the Perfect Sermon or Asclepius are the foundation documents of the Hermetic tradition Written by unknown authors in Egypt sometime before the end of the third century C E they were part of a once substantial literature attributed to the mythic figure of Hermes Trismegistus a Hellenistic fusion of the Greek god Hermes and the Egyptian god Thoth This literature came out of the same religious and philosophical ferment that produced Neoplatonism Christianity and the diverse collection of teachings usually lumped together under the label Gnosticism a ferment which had its roots in the impact of Platonic thought on the older traditions of the Hellenized East There are obvious connections and common themes linking each of these traditions although each had its own answer to the major questions of the time The treatises we now call the Corpus Hermeticum were collected into a single volume in Byzantine times and a copy of this volume survived to come into the hands of Lorenzo de Medici's agents in the fifteenth century Marsilio Ficino the head of the Florentine Academy was pulled off the task of translating the dialogues of Plato in order to put the Corpus Hermeticum into Latin first His translation saw print in 1463 and was reprinted at least twenty two times over the next century and a half The treatises divide up into several groups The first CH I the Poemandres is the account of a revelation given to Hermes Trismegistus by the being Poemandres or Man Shepherd an expression of the universal Mind The next eight CH II IX the General Sermons are short dialogues or lectures discussing various basic points of Hermetic philosophy There follows the Key CH X a summary of the General Sermons and after this a set of four tractates Mind unto Hermes About the Common Mind The Secret Sermon on the Mountain and the Letter of Hermes to Asclepius CH XI XIV touching on the more mystical aspects of Hermeticism The collection is rounded off by the Definitions of Asclepius unto King Ammon CH XV which may be composed of three fragments of longer works The Perfect Sermon The Perfect Sermon or Asclepius which is also included here reached the Renaissance by a different route It was translated into Latin in ancient times reputedly by the same Lucius Apuleius of Madaura whose comic serious masterpiece The Golden Ass provides some of the best surviving evidence on the worship of Isis in the Roman world Augustine of Hippo quotes from the old Latin translation at length in his City of God and copies remained in circulation in medieval Europe all the way up to the Renaissance The original Greek version was lost although quotations survive in several ancient sources The Perfect Sermon is substantially longer than any other surviving work of ancient Hermetic philosophy It covers topics which also occur in the Corpus Hermeticum but touches on several other issues as well among them magical processes for the manufacture of gods and a long and gloomy prophecy of the decline of Hermetic wisdom and the end of the world
