Cinema and the Second Sex Carrie Tarr, Brigitte Rollet, 2016-10-06 Women's filmmaking in France has been a source of both delight and despair. On the one hand the numbers are impressive over 250 feature length films were made by over 100 women directors in France in the 1980s and 1990s. On the other hand despite the heritage of French feminism French women directors characteristically disclaim their gender as a significant factor in their filmmaking. This incisive study provides an informative critical guide to this major body of work exploring the boundaries between personal films intimate psychological dramas relating to key stages in life and genre films which demonstrate women's ability to appropriate and rework popular genres. It analyzes the effects of postfeminism women's desire to enter the mainstream and the impact of a new generation of filmmakers enabling readers to take stock of the wealth and diversity of women's contribution to French cinema during the 1980s and 1990s. Search of Cinema Bert Cardullo, 2004 In Search of Cinema chronicles the vitality of international film art in the last two decades. At a time when the movie review has degenerated into mere publicity for Hollywood pictures and film scholarship has become entangled in its own pseudo scientific discourse Bert Cardullo reclaims the territory of a certain type of film critic somewhere between a reviewer journalist and a scholar theorist. With elegance clarity and rigour he offers close readings of individual films to show how moviemakers use the resources of the medium to pursue complex significant human goals. The essays collected here reflect the spectacular rise of Iranian cinema in recent years as well as the strong contributions of contemporary filmmakers from countries such as Belgium Canada China Israel Lebanon Scotland and Spain. But In Search of Cinema does not neglect the best recent films from major film producing nations like the United States France and Italy and includes retrospective pieces on the careers of Ingmar Bergman and Woody Allen as well as several essays on the interrelationship between film form or film genres and drama and the novel the two forms from which the cinema continues to draw a wealth of its material. Practical Film Criticism Bert Cardullo, 1999 The two volumes of Practical Film Criticism are an attempt to grapple with the nature of film art through the evaluation of vital and representative instances of that art created throughout the world from 1993 to 1998. The essays contained herein are acts of analysis and interpretation they are neither windy theoretical musings nor impenetrable scholarly tracts. In addition there are two translations of visionary articles by prominent international directors an extended interview with an esteemed American movie critic a speculative piece on the relationships among theatre fiction and film an overview of the careers of Vittorio De Sica and Woody Allen and a long polemical introduction.
