McLaren, Joe L. Kincheloe, 2007 Our educational system is in turmoil Many would argue that it has been assaulted and oversimplified by the right There is growing concern that we are becoming a liberal nation state with an increasingly anti liberal population and an electorate that is disinterested in politics In this globalized world the power of capital is so great that opposition to it is often discouraged and disheartened leaving many citizens few political precepts by which to consider their institutions This contemporary failure of vision has opened the way for the unimpeded return of the philosophy of the free market As a result social and educational policies are debated almost solely in terms of how they fit with the needs of the market Social and ethical understandings are replaced by a failed economic theory that requires a radical constraint of our political and economic choices Compassion for the poor the market lets us know is wrong headed because any interference with the labor market will always result in unfortunate economic and social consequences Moral issues are eclipsed by market needs In Critical Pedagogy Where Are We Now the contributors discuss how the field of critical pedagogy should respond to such dire conditions in a way that is theoretically savvy and visionary while concurrently contributing to the struggle to improve the lives of those most hurt by them Critical Pedagogy is essential reading for every classroom teacher and pre service teacher It is also a valuable tool for use in undergraduate and graduate level classrooms      Christian Responses to Spiritual Incursions into the 21st Century Church and Society Nikolaos Asproulis, Stuart Devenish, 2020-10-30 This volume provides an account of the surprising in breaking of spiritual life that persists in our culture despite the best efforts of atheist spokespersons and secular theorists Spirituality in its varying forms is irrepressible resisting our attempts to exclude it by continuing to seep through the cracks and leak through the gaps When it is allowed to manifest itself through the Christian faith tradition it has the power to surprise transform and renew everything it touches This volume contains a series of case studies each of which describes the inner functionings and out workings of the spiritual life as a transformative point of contact between God world society and self Each chapter contains high level inquiry drawing on best practice scholarship that is deeply aware of the needs and opportunities that confront 21st century society

Teaching Mysticism William B. Parsons, 2011-12-16 The term mysticism has never been consistently defined or employed either in religious traditions or in academic discourse The essays in this volume offer ways of defining what mysticism is as well as methods for grappling with its complexity in a classroom

Shamanic Trance in Modern Kabbalah Jonathan Garb, 2011-04-15 Bringing to light a hidden chapter in the history of modern Judaism Shamanic Trance in Modern Kabbalah explores the shamanic dimensions of Jewish mysticism Jonathan Garb integrates methods and models from the social sciences comparative religion and Jewish studies to offer a fresh view of the early modern kabbalists and their social and psychological contexts Through close readings of numerous texts some translated here for the first time Garb draws a more complete picture of the kabbalists than previous depictions revealing them to be as concerned with deeper states of consciousness as they were with study and ritual Garb discovers that they developed physical and mental methods to induce trance states visions of heavenly mountains and transformations into animals or bodies of light To gain a deeper understanding of the kabbalists shamanic practices Garb compares their experiences with those of mystics from other traditions as well as with those recorded by psychologists such as Milton Erickson and Carl Jung Finally Garb examines the kabbalists relations with the wider Jewish community uncovering the role of kabbalistic shamanism in the renewal of Jewish tradition as it contended with modernity Dynamic Belonging Harvey E. Goldberg,Steven M. Cohen,Ezra Kopelowitz,2011-12-01 World Jewry today is concentrated in the US and Israel and while distinctive Judaic approaches and practices have evolved in each society parallels also exist This volume offers studies of substantive and creative aspects of Jewish belonging While research in Israel on Judaism has stressed orthodox or extreme versions of religiosity linked to institutional life and politics moderate and less systematized expressions of Jewish belonging are overlooked This volume explores the fluid and dynamic nature of identity building among Jews and the many issues that cut across different Jewish groupings An important contribution to scholarship on contemporary Jewry it reveals the often unrecognized dynamism in new forms of Jewish identification and affiliation in Israel and in the Diaspora

Cross-cultural Studies in Curriculum Claudia Eppert,Hongyu Wang,2008 This volume broadens the horizon of educational research in North America by introducing a comprehensive dialogue between Eastern and Western philosophies and perspectives on the subject of curriculum theory and practice It is a very timely work in light of the progressively globalized nature of education and educational studies and the increasingly widespread attunement to Eastern educational theories in the West By introducing Eastern perspectives this book questions taken for granted thinking in Western educational thought about the foundations of teaching and learning curriculum theory educational policy and educational issues such as teaching for social justice service learning initiatives human rights and environmental education and the teaching of content area subjects It provides an important opportunity for scholars from different countries and different disciplines to establish a solid yet accessible foundation of East West inquiry that furthers the scope and depth of curriculum studies and to disseminate the insights from this book in the venues in which they work Researchers faculty and graduate students in the fields of curriculum theory curriculum and instruction educational foundations philosophy of education international comparative education and multicultural educational studies will welcome this book It is appropriate as a text for upper level courses in these areas JCT. ,1991* Mourning Religion William Barclay Parsons,Diane Elizabeth Jonte-Pace,Susan E. Henking,2008 Late nineteenth and early twentieth century theorists such as Freud Durkheim Weber and Marx built their intellectual edifices on what they thought would be the remains or ruins of religion in the wake of modernization But today the decline and disappearance of religion can no longer be simply assumed In the face of contemporary entanglements of religion and violence the establishment of meaning and morality remains troubling the experience of loss and change remains paradoxically constant and new theoretical perspectives feminism race studies postcolonial studies queer studies postmodernism have emerged challenging the works that mourned religion and created meaning in earlier periods The effects of this ongoing experience of mourning and symbolic loss on culture on subjectivity and on the academic disciplines of religious studies though immense are poorly understood and underinterpreted In order to correct this lacuna in scholarly thought this volume brings together a notable group of scholars who examine the ways in which recent cultural transformations inform the place of religion in the modern world Methodologically they represent the intersection of religious studies and the social scientific study of religion bringing the disciplines of psychology sociology and anthropology into this dialogue Anthropology & Education Quarterly,2001 The New Ireland and Its Sacred Cows Jim Malone,2005 A look at the Merriman Summer School in Ireland The Cambridge History of Jewish Philosophy Steven M. Nadler,Tamar Rudavsky,Martin Kavka,Zachary Braiterman,David Novak,2009 Provides a comprehensive overview of Jewish philosophy from the seventeenth century to the present day Encyclopedia of Curriculum Studies Craig Alan Kridel,2010 This two volume set serves to inform and to introduce terms events documents biographies and concepts to assist the reader in understanding aspects of this rapidly changing expansive and contested field of study Key features displays different perspectives by having authors contribute independent essays on the nature and future of curriculum studies presents a unique and in depth treatment of the Twenty Sixth Yearbook of the National Society for the Study of Education NSSE a 1927 publication that has taken on legendary dimensions for the field of curriculum studies contains bibliographic entries which feature specific publications by curriculum leaders that helped to define the field and helps readers to learn unfamiliar terms and concepts to become more comfortable with specialized phrases and to understand the many significant and perplexing concepts and questions that characterize the field

New Perspectives on Freud's "Moses and Monotheism" Ruth Ginsburg,Ilana Pardes,2006 This book series initiated in 1992 has an interdisciplinary orientation it is published in English and German and comprises research monographs collections of essays and editions of source texts dealing with German Jewish literary and cultural history in particular from the period covering the 18th to 20th centuries The closer definition of the term German Jewish applied to literature and culture is an integral part of its historical development Primarily the decisive factor is that from the middle of the 18th century German gradually became the language of choice for Jews and Jewish authors started writing in German rather than Yiddish or Hebrew even when they were articulating Jewish themes This process is directly connected an historical change in mentality and social factors which led to a gradual opening towards a non Jewish environment which in its turn was becoming more open In the Enlightenment German society becomes the standard of reference initially for an intellectual elite Against this background the term German Jewish literature refers to the literary work of Jewish authors writing in German to the extent that explicit or implicit Jewish themes motifs modes of thought or models can be identified in them From the beginning of the 19th century at the latest however the image of Jews in the work of non Jewish writers determined mainly by anti Semitism becomes a factor in German Jewish literature There is a tension between Jewish writers authentic reference to Jewish traditions or existence and the anti Semitic marking and discrimination against everything Jewish which determines the overall development of the history of German Jewish literature and culture This series provides an appropriate forum for research into the whole problematic area 2006, : 0000
