The Book of Sent Soví, 2008 The oldest Catalan cookery book The Book of Sent Soví composed around the middle of the fourteenth century is the oldest surviving culinary text in Catalan It is anonymous and like the majority of medieval cookery books is the product of a complex process of transmission with multiple manuscript copies and readers who have left their mark on it The contents are eminently practical Successive cooks have recorded their own methods of preparing the dishes and recipes included blending several culinary traditions in a single work Sent Soví is also a reliable source of information on the cookery of the territories of the Crown of Aragon before the revolution caused by the arrival of products from the Americas This edition includes both an English translation by Robin Vogelzang and the original Catalan version It has been the editor's aim to clarify the difficult passages in the book sometimes corrupted because of the complex manuscript tradition so that it can be understood as easily as possible by its twenty first century readers JOAN SANTANACH lectures on medieval literature at the University of Barcelona Published in association with Editorial Barcino
