Anthropology and mysticism in the making of initiation Andy Hilton,2023-09-14 By the 1980s interest in initiation was at its peak it was being employed both theoretically and practically in gender politics and humanistic therapy How did that come to be how should we understand initiation and what can be its future This wide ranging book looks at the history evolution and contemporary idea of initiation It traces origins in the ancient Mysteries and early Christian texts through Renaissance rediscoveries to admission in Freemasonry and anthropological investigations in French Canada and British Australia It introduces the initiation discourse as something that was constructed through centuries of translations and nineteenth century human science leading to the making of the modern concept It argues for a subject initiation studies that effectively secularised the eighteenth century rites of admission to produce the twentieth century rites of passage And it details as compensation for this hollowing out of the mystery the study of shaman spirit workers the idea of death and rebirth and the later sacralisation of the liminal in adolescent adult initiation Finally a contemporary revision is explored that incorporates neglected aspects like depth psychology and education for an idea of youth as a life stage And while ritual is now deemphasised the religious dimension is reaffirmed with a critical analysis of cosmic consciousness the enduring Great Mystery

Awakening as Holy Mystery Kevin G. Thew Forrester,2025-07-15 Christianity is an ancient non dual spiritual path of awakening This is not an awakening to God known as a religious object through the lens of belief hewn into shape through a set of religious doctrines This awakening begins with falling in love with the heart of Reality Holy Mystery and comes to fruition in the realization that the soul is one with the Beloved Holy Mystery the soul discovers is the true I of existence The author invites the reader on a journey through reflections and explorations nurtured by worship and prayer Here the soul might begin to slowly awaken to the truth of what she herself is This is the gracious path of Jesus own heart realizing that he and the Beloved are one Jesus awakens as the Christ The spiritual path in the Christian tradition is that each person also realizes Christ heart awakening and knowing not only one s own being as Holy Mystery but all creation as the unfolding flowering of boundless love Awakening becomes the source of servanthood and service Jesus embodies what each is called to realize as the heart s deepest and unceasing longing
