Department of Printed Books, 1969      The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1992      The Mystic Way Evelyn Underhill, 1913      The Mystic Way Evelyn Underhill, 2015-07-11 Excerpt from The Mystic Way A Psychological Study in Christian Origins It is the object of this book to trace out that type of life that peculiar quality of consciousness which is called mystical from its earliest appearance within Christianity to estimate so far as is possible the true character and origin of the Christian mystic and define the qualities which differentiate him from those other mystics who have been evolved along other lines of spiritual development Oriental Neoplatonic or Mahomedan It is now acknowledged by many psychologists amongst whom Leuba and Delacroix are of special importance since their conclusions are entirely free from theological bias that the Christian mystic does possess such differentiating characters and represents so far as the psychical

nature of man is concerned a genuine species apart Leuba indeed does not hesitate to call him one of the most amazing and profound variations of which the human race has yet been witness This being so his origin and real significance have surely a special importance for those interested in the spiritual evolution of humanity We are still too often told that Christian mysticism is no integral part of Christianity sometimes even that it represents an opposition to the primitive Christian ideal Sometimes we are asked to believe that it originated from Neoplatonic influence that Pagan blood runs in its veins and that its genealogy goes back to Plotinus Far from this being the case all the doctrines and all the experiences characteristic of genuine Christian mysticism can be found in the New Testament and I believe that its emergence as a definite type of spiritual life coincides with the emergence of Christianity itself in the person of its Founder About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Mystic Way in Postmodernity Sue Yore,2009 This book challenges experiential esoteric and colloquial understandings of mysticism by bringing a fresh relevance to the term through an interdisciplinary dialogue between literature mysticism and theology in the context of postmodernity In order to achieve this the author takes selected writings of Iris Murdoch Denise Levertov and Annie Dillard and incorporates them into various stages of a redesigned mystic way The fourteenth century mystic Julian of Norwich is invoked throughout as a role model whom these three writers seek to emulate as popular writers contemplatives and theologians As theologians who are concerned with the pressing issues of our age Grace Jantzen Dorothee Soelle and Sallie McFague are drawn on as conversation partners to complete the three way discussion The author maintains that understanding the writing and reading of creative texts in the context of practical mysticism facilitates an integrated approach to the use of literature for theological expression
