Many Paths Of Christianity:

Many Paths Eugene Hillman,2008-06-01 In Many Paths Eugene Hillman a pioneer in the area of interreligious dialogue and Catholic thought argues that the wider ecumenism to which Christians were summoned by Vatican II may prove to be the most radically demanding of the Council's many calls. It requires a reexamination of christology of ecclesiology of missiology and a coming to terms with the reality of religious pluralism. By exploring religion's historic-cultural dimensions examining the Church's tradition and practice vis-à-vis other cultures and religions and explicating the challenges of a post-Vatican II ministry Many Paths makes a vital contribution to the development of interreligious dialogue    The Many Paths of Christianity Jan Thompson,Mel Thompson,1988    A dialogue between a Christian and a Hindu about religion David N.

Lorenzen,2015-03-02 The Dialogue between a Christian and a Hindu about Religion Jav basv la aika kr st n aura aika h du ke b ca mo im na ke upara was written in about 1751 by Giuseppe Maria da Gargnano with help from his Capuchin friend and colleague Cassiano da Macerata and from an unnamed Brahmin teacher. This teacher apparently taught Giuseppe Maria to read Hindustani and some Sanskrit instructed him in the basics of Hindu religion and corrected the Hindustani text of the Dialogue. A copy of the Hindustani text was first presented to the raja of Bettiah in 1751. Subsequently an undetermined number of hand made copies were distributed among persons in the Bettiah area. A copy of the Hindustani text in an Indian script related to nagari dated in 1751 together with an Italian version was sent to Rome and is now in the Vatican Library Borg ind 11. Another copy of the text dated in 1787 is also found in the same Library Borg ind 16. In the context of the still limited progress of European studies of Indian languages and culture in Giuseppe Maria's historical period and despite the shortcomings of his own cultural upbringing and intellectual training the Hindu Christian dialogue remains a pioneering linguistic and religious experiment    Tales of the Turing Church: Hacking religion, enlightening science, awakening technology Giulio Prisco,2020-02-07 This book explores intersections of science and religion spirituality and technology engineering and science fiction mind and matter and outlines a new cosmic transhumanist religion Hacking religion enlightening science awakening technology    Thinking About Religion in the 21st Century George C. Adams, Jr.,2024-07-26

The crisis of 21st century religion is upon us. With fewer people remaining committed to traditional religions and most new religious movements in their infancy where does that leave the vast silent spiritual majority who find the old religions to be obsolete and the new religions to be not yet credible. For everyday people who feel lost between a rejected religion of the past and a still obscure religion of the future Thinking About Religion in the 21st Century suggests that there is indeed another way to look at religion fully informed by 21st century sensibilities that requires no sacrifice of the intellect or abandonment of moral sensibilities. The old religions can be set aside and the religions of the future might not yet have evolved into something worthy of full commitment but there already exists a viable evolving alternative spiritual perspective grounded in the elements of everyday ordinary human experience already available    The Making of a Christian Empire

Elizabeth DePalma Digeser,2000 The Making of a Christian Empire is the first full length book to interpret the Divine Institutes as a historical source Exploring Lactantius's use of theology philosophy and rhetorical techniques Digeser perceives the Divine Institutes as a sophisticated proposal for a monotheistic state that intimately connected the religious policies of Diocletian and Constantine both of whom used religion to fortify and unite the Roman Empire BOOK JACKET
