R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries St. James Reference Guide to English Literature: 20th century poetry, 1985 Early Modern English Literature and the Poetics of Cartographic Anxiety Christine

Barrett,2018 This fascinating study explores how Renaissance era maps fascinated people with their beauty and precision yet they also unnerved readers and writers The volume shows how late sixteenth and seventeenth century poets channelled the anxieties provoked by maps and mapping creating a new way of thinking about how literature represents space
