Lutyens Country Houses:

Sir Edwin Lutyens Daniel O'Neill, 1980      Edwin Lutyens Gavin Stamp, 2001 Presenting a stunning collection of the architectural designs of Edward Lutyens throughout the many phases of his acclaimed career this beautifully presented study includes examples of his Surrey vernacular style early arts and crafts houses and his carefully composed classical houses

Edwin Lutyens Gavin Stamp, 2001 Edwin Lutyens 1869 1944 perhaps the greatest British architect of the twentieth century was introduced by garden designer Gertrude Jekyll his celebrated collaborator to Edward Hudson the founder of the great British magazine Country Life in 1889 Hudson thereafter did all he could to promote the work of a man he admired without reservation commissioning Lutyens to design the magazine's offices in Covent Garden in 1904 as well as three country houses Country Life published articles about virtually all his buildings shortly after their completion recording them as the architect intended creating an unparalleled visual archive which is the source for this selection of outstanding photographs of Lutyens's domestic architecture Gavin Stamp's authoritative introduction places Lutyens firmly among the giants of architecture an architect of rare genius and humanity His selection of twenty two houses representative of all the phases of Lutyens's career illustrates the architect's dual achievements as a renewer of both vernacular tradition and of the Classical language of architecture Debate continues about Lutyens's place in modern architecture but his legacy of some of the most inventive and romantic examples of British domestic architecture is unquestionable There are superb examples of his Surrey vernacular style with its gables timber and sweeping planes of tiled roof such as Fulbrook House one of his earliest masterpieces Deanery Garden designed with the garden in mind for Hudson early Arts and Crafts houses such as Goddards and Little Thakeham his carefully composed Classical houses such as Heathcote and his grandest country house of all Middleton Park built between the two World Wars Here too are examples of his brilliant enlargements and alterations to existing buildings such as Lindisfarne Castle and his creation of the epitome of castle style Castle Drogo This pictorial survey culminates in Lutyens's most famous creation Viceroy's House in New Delhi one of the greatest buildings in the world Founded in 1897 Country Life from the outset published remarkable photographs and the huge influence the magazine exerted was nowhere more apparent than in its unprecedented championship of Edwin Lutyens whose buildings it promoted for almost fifty years For this book two hundred photographs have been beautifully reproduced from the Country Life archive and combined with Gavin Stamp's illuminating essay provide a unique survey of one of Britain's foremost architects      The Architecture of Sir Edwin Lutyens: Country-houses Arthur Stanley George Butler, 1984      The Architecture of Sir Edwin Lutyens A.S.G. Butler, 2023-04-28 The quality of the reprint is nearly perfect with a good selection of papers for the three sequential parts of the book the texts the drawings and the black and white photographs Text and drawings are on matte heavyweight pages while the photos are on glossy paper The inks make everything read well in particular the drawing reproductions are exquisite Archidose Edwin Lutyens one of the most famous architectural names of the 20th century died in 1944 As a memorial three large volumes of his drawings and photographs were commissioned from the thousands found in his office and were published by Country Life All three volumes will be republished in 2023 The first volume contains his own plans elevations and copious details of the finest examples of his domestic buildings on which his huge reputation principally rests The book embodies the quintessence of the man and his work the variety of style and design seen in the houses brings together in one volume the many strands of Lutyens s fertile mind Two further volumes will include his corporate and public buildings The genius of Lutyens is now universally recognized In the work featured in this book we can now see not just the professionalism of a great architect but also the loving care with which he set down the most minute detail with the result that this is one of the few books in existence that can be used to provide working drawings Lutyens Daniel O' Neill,1980

Conflict in the UK and Australia since the Great War Andrekos Varnava, Michael J.K. Walsh, 2022-12-26 This book shows how cultural production derived from or in anticipation of conflict can be used to create specific social identities national histories and contemporary concepts of memory in Britain and Australia Studies on the politics of cultural production have usually focussed on one conflict or on one particular cultural medium at a time This volume however presents a broader horizon to draw attention to more popular forms of cultural production from the Great War up to and including its Centenary The chapters in this volume interrogate the contentious philosophical notion that culture thrives in times of war and expires in peace and asks whether art as a form of social barometer can anticipate conflict rather than merely respond to it This is a fascinating read for students researchers and academics interested in British and Australian History and its relationship with Popular Culture The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Contemporary British History
