Maccormack Conspiracy:

The MacCormack Conspiracy Catherine Marshall,1989 Romance In Defence of Conspiracy Theories Brian Nugent,2009 This book is an attempt to address the widespread criticism of conspiracy theories raising issues like the control and negligence of the main organs of the media and police which make it difficult for true information to reach the public and hence the public remain in ignorance of and dismiss as a conspiracy theory the true facts and the public's habit of underestimating the complexity of modern day politics A number of complex political plots and allegations are described in detail including the 1641 Rebellion British Intelligence manipulation of the 1919 21 Irish leaders Secret Societies and the role of Occult organisations in Ireland and around the world the allegations that Martin McGuinness is a British agent and the motivation behind large scale immigration into Ireland The author also addresses the question of value systems in modern Western societies and asks are even these being manipulated in order to assist the process of political control

Committee on the Judiciary,1935 Spectres of Pessimism Mark Schmitt,2023-03-15 This book argues that philosophical pessimism can offer vital impulses for contemporary cultural studies Pessimist thought offers ways to interrogate notions of temporality progress and futurity When the horizon of future expectation is increasingly shaped by the prospect of apocalypse and extinction an exploration of pessimist thought can help to make sense of an increasingly complex and uncertain world by affirming rather than suppressing the worst This book argues that a cultural logic of the worst is at work in a substantial section of contemporary philosophical thought and cultural representations Spectres of pessimism can be found in contemporary ecocritical thought antinatalist philosophies political thought and cultural theory as well as in literature film and popular music In its unsettling of temporality this new pessimism shares sensibilities with the field of hauntology Both deconstruct linear narratives of time that adhere to a stable sequence of past present and future Mark Schmitt therefore couples pessimism and hauntology to explore the spectres of pessimism in a range of theories and narratives from ecocriticism antinatalism and queer theory to utopianism from afropessimism to the fiction of Hari Kunzru and Thomas Ligotti to the films of Camille Griffin Gaspar Noé Denis Villeneuve and Lars von Trier Hearing[s] Before the ... criminal law lacks a coherent account of individual responsibility This failure is due to the inability of international tribunals to capture the distinctive nature of individual responsibility for crimes that are collective by their very nature Specifically they have misunderstood the nature of the collective action or framework that makes these crimes possible and for which liability may be attributed to intellectual authors policy makers and leaders In this book the author draws on insights from comparative law and methodology to propose doctrines of perpetration and secondary responsibility that reflect the role and function of high level participants in mass atrocity while simultaneously situating them within the political and social climate which renders these crimes possible This new doctrine is developed through a novel approach which combines and restructures divergent theoretical perspectives on attribution of responsibility in English and German domestic criminal law as major representatives of the common law and civil law systems At the same time it analyses existing theories of responsibility in international criminal law and assesses whether there is any justification for their retention by international criminal tribunals The MacCormack Conspiracy Catherine Marshall,1988 Whitaker's Books in Print ,1990
